100,000 Cheer Marilyn Bell

Toronto Triumphantly Welcomes Youngest Channel Conqueror

TORONTO (CP)—Swimmer Marilyn Bell's hometown today gave her one of the biggest ticketed welcomes the city has ever seen.

As she returned from Europe and her conquest of the English channel, thousands of persons jammed hot downtown streets to cheer her and her party.

The 17-year-old swimmer, who landed at suburban Malton airport during the noon hour of the last lap of her journey home, was whisked into the city by a motorcycle escort to a point near the downtown Union Station where a parade formed up for the victory march up Bay Street to the City Hall and a civic reception.

For more than an hour before the parade started, festoons of multi-colored streamers and ticker tapes were hanging from windows in the Bay Street financial district and were carried by the rising hot air into the skies.

DRAPED WITH STREAMERS
Street cars continued to run until the moment of the parade. They were draped with the long tapes thrown from the upper storeys of the big financial houses by excited staff members.

Crowds started gathering outside City Hall more than three hours before Marilyn was due. Families brought their lunches with them and camped on the lawns in front of the building to wait in humid heat for the welcome-home ceremonies.

Deputy clerk Edgar Norris estimated the City Hall crowd at more than 100,000 persons and described it as the "biggest since the 1951 royal tour."

Riding behind three bands in a gale of thunderous cheers and billowing ticker-tape, Marilyn smiled and waved as she moved slowly up Bay Street in an open convertible.

Mounted city police officers led the parade up to the steps in front of City Hall where Mayor Nathan Phillips and members of the board of control welcomed Marilyn.

The mayor, declaring it "a great day for Canada," said Marilyn exemplified "the unconquerable Canadian spirit which never says die."

He presented her with a chest of sterling silver, a gift from the citizens of Toronto. To Gus Ryder, her coach in the channel swim and in her triumph last September over Lake Ontario, went a silver platter.

Marilyn's trans-Atlantic plane, due at Montreal early this morning, had to overfly Dorval airport there and land at Ottawa because of fog.

The Super-Connie aircraft made three unsuccessful passes over Dorval airport while Montreal Mayor Jean Drapeau, Shriners' officials and a corps of newsmen waited to greet her.

Torrential Hurricane Floods U.S. Seaboard

PRIZE FOR CROSSWORD JUMPS UP TO $400

One of the key clues that prevented thousands of Times Crossword puzzlers from winning last week, was a truly tricky one. So no one collects the $375 prize offered, and this week the total award for a correct answer jumps to $400.

"Stills" was the answer to 4-down. "To be seen in an English movie theatre, of course" was the clue and most crossworders gave the answer as "stalls." The clue, to be "seen" favors something intended as an amusement or diversion which would embrace "stills" rather than "stalls"—the term used in describing certain seats in English theatres.

"Trio" was another answer seemingly difficult to arrive at, most contestants coming up with "Trip" or "Trim." Complete answer and explanation for last week's puzzle together with a new puzzle for this week appears on Page 22 of today's paper.

Jet Blamed For Mystery Oak Bay Blasts

Explosive 'Sonic Barrier' Waves Rock Homes, Make Plaster Fall

An unidentified jet aircraft bursting the sound barrier seems the most likely culprit in regard to four mysterious explosions heard in Oak Bay between 3 and 3:10 p.m. Thursday.

Dozens of residents reported seeing a vapor trail in the sky at the time, and one, Mrs. D. I. Douglas, 1584 Clive Drive, told Oak Bay police she saw an aircraft.

She told police further that her daughter, who has heard the explosion an aircraft makes as it reaches the speed of sound, said Thursday's mystery blasts were closely akin to the aircraft phenomenon.

The explosions were heard over a restricted area, but appeared to have come from the southeast, over water. They were heard between the Uplands and Shoal Bay, and westward into Fairfield, but elsewhere in Victoria they went unheard.

Mrs. J. T. Lee, 2550 Maynard, in the Ten Mile Point area, said the sound was that of a ladder being placed against the house, and flakes of plaster fell from the ceiling.

A window was blown out of a basement door at the home of W. J. Roper, 161 Beach Drive, and Oak Bay police were quite convinced that a truck had hit Oak Bay municipal hall.

About half the employees in the building felt the tremor, police said.

Frank Partridge, 151 Beach Drive, said each of the four blasts "really shook" his house.

There are many things the blasts were not. W. G. Milne, seismologist at the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory, said there was no earthquake, and the navy said no ships were firing. The army had an anti-aircraft practice at 3 p.m. at Albert Head, far to the west.

RCAF spokesmen at Vancouver and Comox said aircraft from their stations were not responsible, and United States forces could not be held responsible.

STRICT ORDERS
Lieut. Alex Crowdsom, at McChord air force base near Tacoma, said pilots flew under strict and specific regulations regarding exceeding the speed of sound, and that manoeuvres calling for supersonic speeds were held over thinly populated areas.

"Our aircraft were not in the Victoria area at that time," said Lieut. Walter C. Burke, USAF, of the Paine Air Force Base near Everett, Wash.

Experts have agreed, though, that the characteristics of the blasts, such as being heard generally in a limited area, were those of sound barrier passage.

"It could even have come from a long distance if weather conditions were right," one observer said. "After all, it is only 20 miles from the Olympics where this kind of thing is done occasionally."

Attlee Has Mild Stroke
GREAT MISSENDEN, England (UP)—The wife of Labor party leader and former prime minister Clement Attlee confirmed today that Attlee suffered "a light stroke" last week.

She said the 72-year-old socialist leader was stricken with a mild cerebral thrombosis—a blood clot on the brain.

But she said he was back on his feet again, following a week of medical treatment, and now is "fully recovered."

DATE INDEFINITE
The Cougar general manager declined to name the exact date of Patrick's retirement, or the actual terms by which 72-year-old Patrick will dispose of his interest in the club.

"There is a remote possibility that the sale will fall through," said Hutchinson, "but a definite announcement will be made in the near future."

Patrick himself "declined to make any comment" when asked for confirmation on the pending sale.

Antidisestablishmentarianism Wins Delays in Argentina Vote
BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Argentina's senate has authorized President Juan Peron to delay action on the explosive issue of separating church and state, even as the government renewed its dispute with Roman Catholic leaders.

The senate Thursday night put its stamp on the government bill which already has cleared the lower house. If Peron signs it, election of a constitutional assembly to sever the church's official ties with the state could be held off until next May. The original law called for an election before Nov. 23.

Under the present constitution, Roman Catholicism is Argentina's official religion and the president must be of that faith. But the Vatican, excommunicated Peron last June during his bitter feud with church leaders whom he accused of starting an insurgent political movement.

The senate acted less than 24 hours after Justice Minister Oscar Albrieu accused seven priests in Buenos Aires of using the pulpit to incite "a campaign of disobedience" against Peron.

Morocco Faces 'Bloody Climax' Of Terrorism

Crisis Expected To Come Saturday

MEKNES, Morocco (Reuters)—Demonstrators sacked and set fire to European-owned shops in rioting in the Arab quarter of Kenitra, in the Meknes area, today.

Officials said they feared a "bloody climax" on Saturday. First reports said a demonstration began peacefully but soon became violent. Moroccan raged up and down the streets pillaging and wrecking shops and leaving them in flames.

The new disorders came on the eve of the second anniversary of France's deposition of the popular sultan, Mohammed Ben Youssef.

Gilbert Grandval, French resident-general in Morocco, arrived in Paris today for talks with government leaders on the growing tension in the protectorate.

The French government on Thursday granted Sultan Moulay Ben Arafat a breathing space in his bid to form a representative government. But hopes are fast fading that he can succeed before the crisis explodes into violence.

Nine States Hit; Loss in Millions; 22 Dead Counted

(UP and AP Dispatches)

NEW YORK—A dying hurricane poured flood waters across the northeastern United States today, inundating hundreds of communities, taking at least 22 lives and causing damage in the hundreds of millions.

Western Connecticut and Massachusetts were declared official disaster areas. Sections of Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Rhode Island, Virginia, Maryland and the District of Columbia were awash with the waters from spilling rivers and bursting dams.

Ten thousand blasting caps, capable of blowing up any bridge they touch, were washed into Pennsylvania's Schuylkill river from a flooded powder plant and coursed down the swollen stream toward Philadelphia.

Rail service was suspended and highways were useless throughout the affected states. Army, Coast Guard and National Guard forces used boats, amphibious vehicles and helicopters to rescue stranded residents and campers from rooftops and trees.

Almost all methods of travel to Scranton, Pa., were cut off by the rampaging Lackawanna River—which went nine feet above flood stage—or other streams that became swirling carriers of desolation.

More than 50 persons were stranded on manufacturing plant rooftops in Scranton as the city issued a plea for aid. The main business district of Tamaqua, Pa., went under five feet of water from the Schuylkill River.

Bursting Dams Threaten Towns
In the Pocono mountain resort area of Pennsylvania, a dam burst at Tobyhanna but there were no reports of casualties.

A dam overflowed at Howley, in northeast Pennsylvania, isolating the community of 1,600. Some 300 passengers were removed from two stranded trains in Pennsylvania by helicopter and army truck.

More than 250 Boy Scout campers were rescued by helicopter from a Delaware river island and 33 youngsters were similarly plucked from a private camp endangered by the flooding Neversink river.

A number of the already flooded Connecticut communities in the Farmington River valley were in peril of their very existence should engineers fail to hold Massachusetts' Otis reservoir dam against the burgeoning waters.

More than 12 inches of rain had fallen in the Massachusetts and Connecticut areas in the last 48 hours and it was still raining down at midday.

The greatest deluge was at Hazleton, Pa., where 9.35 inches of rain fell in 21 hours.

Girl Nears Swim Goal After Four Drop Out
WINNIPEG (BUP)—Kathie McIntosh, 20, was all alone in her attempt to become the first person to swim the 18 miles across Lake Winnipeg today after four others gave up.

Kathie was within three miles of the west shore of the lake after nine hours. She was swimming with her left arm almost useless because of blisters.

20 Top Jobs Await Action

OTTAWA (BUP)—More than 20 top-bracket appointments awaited government action today. Heading the list of vacancies to be filled is the job of postmaster-general in the cabinet. A replacement for the late Alcide Cote might be named within a month.

Ten seats in the 102-member senate are empty. Three of the vacancies are in the Quebec roster, two in New Brunswick and one each in Newfoundland, Nova Scotia, Ontario, Manitoba and British Columbia.

At least three cabinet ministers need parliamentary assistants. The usual five-year terms of a half-dozen lieutenant-governors are already up or soon will be. The provinces involved are Newfoundland, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island, Quebec, Alberta and British Columbia.

CBC POST
The death of Rene Morin, a vice-chairman of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation's board of governors for many years, created a vacancy not yet filled.

A senate law clerk—at $11,000 a year—is needed to replace John MacNeill, appointed clerk of the upper chamber July 28.

The July 28 switch of Edouard Handy to the post of secretary of the Federal District Commission left open the job of curator at Laurier House, the home Mackenzie King willed to the nation. The job pays $6,500 a year. The exchequer court needs an extra judge. His annual salary will be $14,900.

Telephone Cable Laid Under Mid-Atlantic

LONDON (UPI)—The British cable ship "Monarch" finished laying a slender 1,300-mile telephone cable two miles under mid-Atlantic yesterday. The cable is the mid-Atlantic section of the first transatlantic telephone line, expected to be ready for its first call in late 1956.

INDIA ENDS RELATIONS WITH GOA

PANJIM, Goa (Reuters)—India today snapped her last direct link with Portugal by announcing the withdrawal of the Indian consulate in Goa as of Sept. 1. India also demanded in a note to the Portuguese authorities here to demand the closing of Portuguese consulates.

Seventy Indians crossed the border into Goa today in the second round of the "peaceful invasion" of the Portuguese enclave by nationalist groups bent on its "peaceful liberation."

Truck Driver, Avoiding Car, Crushed to Death in Crash

VANCOUVER (BUP)—A city-driven truck driver, 19, was killed and a 19-year-old youth carrying George Valancius, 21, was charged with motor manslaughter following a truck-car crash here at midnight. John H. McKenzie, 27, was driving a car. McKenzie was killed in a collision with a car crushed under the truck.

66 FLAGS FLY ON EVE OF JAMBOREE

Swap Talk Rules Roost Today In 9,000 Scouts' Tent City

By BILL BOSS
Canadian Press Staff Writer
NIAGARA—ON—THE LAKE, Ont. (CP)—The flags of 66 countries, breaking out this morning from as many poles surrounding this campsite's circular flag plaza, will symbolize the unofficial opening of the eighth World Scout Jamboree. Governor-General Massey opens the jamboree officially Saturday at 2:00 p.m. before 8,000 scouts massed in the jamboree arena while another 2,000 (mainly Canadian) will line the route of the subsequent march-past.

For Roman Catholic scouts attending, the jamboree begins tonight with a benediction presided over by Most Rev. Maurice Roy, Archbishop of Quebec, who will read greetings from Pope Pius.

But for the 9,000 scouts under variegated shelter Thursday night, regardless of formalities, the jamboree had started.

TRADE BADGES

The great swap was on. In the catenets, at the trading post, in most sub-camps little knots of assorted scouts told of eager bartering going on—mainly in scout badges. But other gear was fair game and two British scouts confided they had their eyes on German lederhosen—goatskin shorts worn by the West German contingent.

Boys from Trinidad staged a noisy road march accompanied by a "steel band"—cut-down steel drums tuned to musical pitch—and circled the camp to the tune of "The Happy Wanderer."

The Danger of Cotton

THE PROTECTIONISTS OF Washington have lately conceived a masterpiece of trade restriction. Since the Government proposes to dump surplus cotton on the world market at bargain prices, it is essential, the southern protectionists argue, that foreign cotton goods be more effectively barred from the American market. Otherwise, buying cheap raw cotton from the United States, the foreign manufacturer will offer the American consumer cheap cotton fabrics.

Thus the process begun with high farm price supports would round a full circle. The farmer is encouraged to grow products that he cannot sell. The state buys up the products and sells them abroad for less than it has paid the farmer—this, of course, at the taxpayer's expense. But lest the consumer secure any price reduction, foreign imports must be restricted to make way for high-priced domestic manufacturers.

The public is to pay for this system in taxes and in prices. So far as possible the foreigner is to be prevented from earning dollars and thus buying American goods. It is to be hoped and expected that the Eisenhower Government will reject such an economic monstrosity in the case of cotton.

Considering its difficulties, and the power of protection in the Republican Party, the Government's tariff record is remarkably good. It should not be forgotten either that the Government did not invent but inherited the price support system which has lately issued in the dumping of farm products.

If, after its long struggle to prevent tariff increases and its success in liberalizing the tariff law, the Government were to restrict cotton imports the intrinsic effect might not be serious of itself, except perhaps to Japan. But the psychological effect in undermining the confidence of other nations would be extremely grave. In the case of cotton, a political as well as an economic commodity throughout the south, the Government faces a critical test. Foreigners who are alarmed by these developments must remember that the generosity of the United States during the last decade is without parallel in history. Its gifts of money (which means goods) under the Marshall Plan and the still large foreign aid program undoubtedly saved the free world from economic disaster.

After a recovery also without parallel the free world requires a restoration of something like normal trading conditions, above all the chance to earn American dollars by the sale of its own goods in the United States.

It will be seen, however, that the United States so far has preferred to give away its goods in large volume than to accept full payment in foreign goods. When, as a result, foreign customers lack dollars to buy American goods, the United States gives them those dollars.

The long-standing dollar shortage abroad is simply the result and opposite side of the United States' determination to sell more than it buys. The dumping of farm surpluses is merely the latest aspect of this policy. The further restriction of imports made from cheap raw materials would be quite logical, given the illogical first premise.

Such Alice in Wonderland economics are not confined to the United States by any means.

The textile industry of Canada has begun to clamor for restrictions on Japanese textiles. Some months ago it said it was being ruined by British imports, but the tariff board found that its difficulties lay within the industry itself.

Now the nation is asked to buy less Japanese goods, even though Japan is buying much larger quantities of our goods and has become our third foreign market.

The United States may temporarily solve a problem of this sort by giving goods away and smuggling the loss into the national budget. Canada lacks the means to pursue such a policy. If we are to restrict imports inevitably we shall also restrict our exports and the jobs that they provide.

Back to Jungle Ethics

THE PERSPECTIVE OF HISTORY will surely prompt a chapter on the mode of warfare revived by communism. It is not a new mode since its methods are those of wild beasts without feelings, codes or memories, but it had fallen into disuse as an inter-tribal policy since human beings emerged from the cave. It had reappeared as a civil weapon under nazism and communism. The latter made it a part of international war.

Thus the new code of conduct for United States armed servicemen includes, along with pledges of loyalty and integrity, an undertaking to "evade answering . . . questions to the utmost of my ability" and to refrain from "oral or written statements disloyal to my country and its allies or harmful to their cause."

The reference, of course, is to the methods perfected by Communist China in torturing prisoners, mentally or physically, in order to make them divulge information or take part in Communist propaganda.

The revelations of United Nations servicemen who were captured in Korea and subjected to months or years of deliberate torture are recalled by the more recent stories told by returned American airmen recently released by the Red Chinese. The exhausting interrogations, the beatings, the close confinement, the forced standing for days at a time—these duplicate the earlier Korean war revelations.

The plight of a serviceman so treated must be viewed with sympathy. Few human beings are so constituted that they can stand unlimited mental and bodily torment. And in any case the point is reached where the mind must give way and acquiescence is given in a trance-like state beyond the power of the victim to control.

The methods had been perfected by the Nazi Gestapo and the Soviet secret police—both tools of national systems which deny the integrity of the individual. It remained for the Chinese communists to add a touch deriving from their Oriental disregard of the value of human life.

The gods must weep as they view such savages inflicting their degradations on victims in cage and dungeon. The horrors of the atom bomb seem pale in comparison with the horrors of man himself.

They Like Ike

NO MATHEMATICIAN was needed to discover that President Eisenhower can win a second term almost without raising a finger. But when mathematics are applied to this question by the latest public opinion polls the result is more decisive than even the practical politicians could have imagined.

Just under 80 per cent of the American people are shown as approving the President's leadership, only 13 per cent disapprove and 8 per cent express no view one way or the other.

The public opinion polls could be wrong, of course, by a few percentage points, though their margin of error in past elections has been extremely small. In the case of Mr. Eisenhower there can be no doubt about their result—this man enjoys today a popularity never gained by any predecessor from Washington onwards. Something without precedent and almost unimaginable has happened in American politics.

When about 55 per cent of the popular vote can win almost every state in a presidential election (as happened under Franklin Roosevelt) it seems clear that a second term for Mr. Eisenhower awaits only his consent.

A Little Wider, Please

NEWS THAT A SOUNDLESS, painless method of drilling teeth is being demonstrated in Toronto will be greeted with a muffled, gargling cheer by millions of victims of modern living who sit in dentists' chairs with their mouths full of instruments.

The new process, according to reports, does away with the drill. The buzzing little excavator with the hot sting is replaced by a gadget that uses ultra-sonic vibrations acting through abrasive particles suspended in a liquid. The action eats away the defective tooth material, but nothing is felt, heard or seen by the patient.

If it proves successful, this device should remove the last remnants of fear still accompanying visits to the dentist. It is of a piece with the wonderful drugs and techniques that have made modern surgery so humane.

The operating room of today is a far cry from the rough and ready quarters of an earlier era. Hypodermics and pills have replaced hefty straps, buckles and ropes as a means of keeping patients quiet while the surgeon works.

But although major operations are unknown to most folk, almost everyone is aware of dentists' and their drills. Memory of them has been known to keep youngsters from eating candy for a whole week. Now to mouths all too commonly filled with high-pitched noises, science brings an ultra-sonic benefit. The sound barrier is broken again.

New Kind of Bird

Chips

BY DAVID BROCK

FOR some years it has been impossible to break the bank at Monte Carlo, because of the limit on the stakes. But I'm interested to see that someone has got round this restriction by breaking the bank at Monte Carlo in another sense. The largest banking firm in the Principality has failed. It holds most of the government's deposits, the savings of many citizens, and the funds of foreigners who were attracted by Monaco's lack of controls. It will not be known until after the trials how much this failure was due to fraud (if there was any fraud at all), and how much was due to carelessness and extravagant speculation. But in any event, I know one song that is not being sung on the Riviera these days. "As I stroll along in the Bois de Boulogne with an independent air . . ."

Brock

YEARS ago, by the way, I knew a very small boy . . . he couldn't have been much over four . . . who was inordinately fond of that song, and he used to sing it. I remember the boy very well. For example, he was enacting to himself the story of the three little pigs. The wolf hammered on one of the three doors and said "Come on, pig, let me in." "Nope," said the pig, "I don't even know you." "Sure you do, pig," said the caller, "I'm the wolf who broke the bank at Monte Carlo." Anyone who kept the door shut after that would be unworthy of the name of pig.

THE COACHING INN ACCORDING to a Vancouver paper, there is or was an American hotel man who wanted to build some sort of hostelry near the Vancouver airport. I hope he still exists and I hope he does something about it. But I fear he will never succeed in bringing back the old coaching inn in modern guise. Which is exactly what every big airport needs in the worst way.

Air travel duplicates many of the good and bad features of the stage coach. People get out of their conveyance tired and cramped, often at queer hours of the night, and quite commonly they have to do a good deal of hanging around in a place and at a time that offer little in the way of food, drink, warmth, rest, and solicitous hospitality . . . unless minor host of the coaching inn is there to offer them. To offer them at all hours.

In B.C. of course, there would at once be trouble with the licensing laws, which are sacred. To serve a traveler a complete meal at three in the morning would be to corrupt the youth of Vancouver only a few miles away. By British law a bona fide traveler could demand good cheer at any hour. But British law is out of date, and common sense is not.

LABURNUM JUNGLES

In the discussion about laburnum trees, the important factor has been overlooked. They are increasing rapidly where ever they are allowed to. Most people know if there is one on your property or anywhere near, seedlings start every year by the dozen without any help or coddling.

Some of them in places difficult to get at, which is the reason some of them are left where they are especially after they pass the seedling stage and are more difficult to remove. They are prolific seed producers and it all ripens on the tree ensuring virile fertility.

The danger to children would be lessened if the increase was kept in check. To say that other things are poisonous is beside the point. The danger in this case is that the seedpods resemble peas. To pick such things is instinctive, and more to children than anything they have given them.

If any residents have a jungle on their property and lack means to hire help they may get it without charge or obligating themselves in any way by phoning 4-4816. Calls will be attended to in the order received and be treated with absolute confidence.

"ANONYMOUS."

From time to time letters have appeared in your column on matters claiming that the Bible and science agree, and still relating instances of people having lived before Adam. And about Cain meeting other kinds of people in the land of Nod.

I have no wish to cause any argument about this, or about any thing else, I only wish to point out that I have not seen in the Bible any word or statement giving the impression that any people existed prior to Adam, or about Cain meeting any other kind of people in the land of Nod.

D.V.A. HOSPITAL CHAPEL

It was with the greatest of pleasure I read in your paper of the proposed building of the above.

Having been a patient on staff off for some scattered years, and always attending the services conducted by the Padre in the concert room, I welcome it with deep gratitude.

At a recent service after a few years absence (though not a patient), I was struck by the increased number of wheel chair patients being wheeled in to take part in the service. Taking the liberty of speaking for them and numerous other patients we welcome this proposal. Where we are able to show our gratitude to Almighty God for our treatment by the Administration Matron, Doctors (past and present) Nurses, Padre and general staff who so unselfishly give their best.

Our thanks are to those who have and always are looking after us (and I refer to the auxiliaries) in our declining years in this project.

A GRATEFUL VETERAN.

OUT OF THIN AIR

Would appreciate space in your paper to comment on the speech by Premier Bennett at the official opening of Kelowna's new $500,000 court house as reported in the Times on August 11, to the effect that this modern structure has not cost the taxpayers one cent. This statement coming from the Premier is an insult to the intelligence of the people of this Province.

Which reminds me there has been some reference in the press with the object in view of building a civic auditorium, the only thing in the way seems to be the cost.

May I beg to suggest that the matter be placed in the capable hands of Premier Bennett and his financial advisor Mr. Gunderson. And Victoria could in this way obtain a magnificent auditorium for approximately $1,000,000 which would not cost the taxpayers one penny.

SWEETSTAKES

Common-sense people will have thought "at last," when they read Aug. 5 about the legalizing of the first U.S. state sweepstakes Bill in New Hampshire. On the other hand, the "holier than thou" crowd will be up in arms.

Where several countries have state-run lotteries, which offer an outlet for everybody's gambling instinct—not alone for those who can gamble on the stock market, etc., and which countries surely have no lower general morality than Canada, whatever the church here may say about it, it is high time that we got a government-run sweepstake in Canada.

Opening the Closed Windows

By WALTER LIPPMANN

THE little Korean insurrection, which was put on last week by Dr. Syngman Rhee, reflects his frustration and despair over what happened at Geneva. Mr. Dulles spelled out the meaning of Geneva for him last week when he declared that "we do not believe the partition ought to be resolved by resort to force."

Lippmann

For while United States policy still protects South Korea against conquest by North Korea, Mr. Dulles has ruled out once and for all Dr. Rhee's wishful fantasy that he can somehow entangle the United States in a war for the unification of Korea.

The spirit of Geneva, translated into the Dulles formula of no change by force, means that the door is closed against the only kind of unification which Dr. Rhee knows how to work for.

Were he a more enlightened statesman, interested in making South Korea a model of efficient and humane and free government, there would be a fair prospect of uniting Korea eventually, under his regime in Seoul. But as things are, there is no telling how the popular sympathies are running under the surface of his dictatorship. Dr. Rhee does not act, however, as if he thought they were running in his favor.

NOT THE LAST

Korea will not, as Mr. Dulles recognized by implication, be the last of the countries where the results of Geneva are deeply disliked. For Geneva, as the Soviets proposed and as we have agreed, does mean that it is not for the time being a vital interest of any of the great powers to change the status quo.

This means an acknowledgment that for an indefinite time we are prepared to live with the partition of Korea, with the containment of Chiang in Formosa, and with the partition of Germany. There is here a radical change in the world situation.

It is, one might say, the difference between betting a reasonable amount and betting everything on the issues. If Geneva means that the great powers are agreed that they will not use force to change the existing situations, then they are agreed on something of the highest substance which they have never agreed upon before.

Such an acceptance of the military stalemate will compel us to rethink a number of our ideas. One of the first will be the assumption that the revolutionary movements all over the globe originate in Moscow, are directed from Moscow, and would fold up if Moscow could be made to b-b-have. That is not true.

REVOLUTIONARY MOVEMENTS

There is an epidemic of revolutionary movements, some of them overt and some still latent, in large parts of Asia, Africa, and Latin America. All of them have been encouraged, many of them have been assisted, some have been profitably exploited, by Moscow.

But in one way or another they would happen even if Moscow said nothing and did nothing about them. They will go on happening even if the spirit of Geneva endures and expands and if the Dulles formula of no force is scrupulously respected.

In his annual report to the United Nations Mr. Hammarskjöld, that wise and effective diplomatist, speaks of "the great upheaval in the relationship of nations and peoples that is under way," and of how as a result "the people of Asia to-day, of Africa tomorrow, are moving towards a new relationship with what history calls the West."

The upheaval is taking place in many different countries. But there are, I think, certain common elements wherever the upheaval is taking place.

One is that the country has not been self-governing, and that with the rarest exceptions its leaders have been trained as agitators for independence rather than as governors and administrators.

Another is that its economy is colonial in that it is a producer of raw materials which it exports to the more highly industrialized countries. The struggle against poverty is a struggle to transform the colonial economy into an industrial economy. To carry out this transformation successfully, the country must have a strong and efficient government.

These fundamental conditions are the real reason why the Soviet Union, and now also the United States, are so anxious to exercise such influence upon the local politicians and intellectuals. For the Soviet Union is the living example to the undeveloped countries of the world of how a backward country can be industrialized rapidly.

DIFFICULT FORM

In the ideological rivalry we are handicapped because liberal democracy is an inordinately difficult form of government, one for which almost none of the countries of the great upheaval is prepared. And we are handicapped too because the American capitalist economy has been created on a fabulously rich, virtually uninhabited, continent, and over a period of two centuries.

For an Asian or an African who is in a hurry, the Russians have the easier formula for getting rich quicker.

The more successfully the great powers rule out the resort to military force, the more shall we be challenged by the subtler problems of the great upheaval. The Dulles formula rules out Communist intervention to support a Communist revolution. But it rules out also Western intervention to help governments to put down an internal insurrection.

The net result is almost certain to be an intensified rivalry to become the friend of those in each country who are affecting its political and economic transformation. For each country will be ruled by those who seem most likely to transform it.

NEW RELATIONSHIP

If I am not mistaken we are entering a period when the West must win admission in the countries where until recently it was the master. Mr. Hammarskjöld was, I take it, thinking of that when he wrote in his report that "the world organization is the place where this emerging new relationship in world affairs can most creatively be forged."

Surely he is right. For as the atomic conference in Geneva has been demonstrating so brilliantly, the U.N. is a great opener of closed windows. Almost certainly the U.N. is destined to play a leading part in opening up and in keeping in the open the rivalry, which will be intense, for influence in the new countries.

People sometimes ask me how I occupy my mind during the long hours spent at the helm. Under those conditions alone in a small boat, thousands of miles of sea all around, you get an intense sense of your own minute size compared with that of the universe. You gaze up at the stars and the vastness of the thing dominates your thoughts. You could sail for eighty days and only cover a couple of inches on the map.

Velvet Glove Method

LONDON—This piece might well be called "The Unloading of Len Hutton." Of course, the name Len Hutton means nothing to the average Canadian. But to the people of all the English-speaking countries in the world outside North America his name is a household word. He is one of the greats of sport.

Reyburn

Right now Hutton is the big talking-point in England... and there you have one of the prime frustrations of my writing this column for you from England. Here is a situation that must be of major importance to the nation, otherwise everybody wouldn't discuss it and argue about it, and I am faced with the fact that the leading man in this charade that is being enacted is someone most of you have never even heard of.

However, I now write about Hutton for two reasons: (a) because this is the inside story on something of intense interest to exiled Englishmen in Canada, and (b) because it raises the notice of Canadians who are not exiled Englishmen by virtue of the fact that it is a delightful example of how folks here are past masters at the art of using the velvet glove.

Now, Len Hutton is acknowledged as the greatest batsman in the cricket world today. He is the master.

But there is one thing wrong with him—in the eyes of the nabobs of cricket. He is a professional. Unlike tennis, professionals are allowed to play side-by-side with amateurs in cricket. But, for those who run cricket, there is still a stigma attached to being a pro.

Since the game started a couple of hundred years ago the big teams have always been captained by an amateur.

Three years ago the selectors who pick the England all-star team were horrified to find that there was no amateur they could choose as captain, so reluctantly the job was given to Hutton—the first professional ever to captain England.

He did fine, including leading his men to victory against deadly rivals Australia for the first time in 20 years.

But... onto the scene have come new young amateurs from which an England captain could be chosen. Problem: How were the cricket bosses to take the captaincy away from Hutton and give it to an amateur without a noisome odor being created as far as the public was concerned?

Here's how it was done. First of all, they honored Hutton by making him an honorary life member of the exclusive Marylebone Cricket Club—first profession this has ever happened to during his cricket career. Then they appointed him captain for all five matches against the visiting South Africans this year.

Those nice things having been done for Hutton, it was announced that he would not play in the first game against South Africa. Lumbago was the reason given. An amateur took over as captain.

Of course, while the England versus South Africa matches went on, Hutton played every day for his county team, Yorkshire. He says that is the best way to get rid of his lumbago.

YOUR HEALTH

By DR. WALTER ALVAREZ

Drug for Myasthenia Gravis

Dr. Alvarez is Emeritus Consultant in Medicine, Mayo Clinic and Emeritus Professor of Medicine, Mayo Foundation.

Those persons who suffer from the rare myasthenia gravis will be glad to hear that a new drug has been found to help them. It is said to be longer-lasting and to have fewer side-effects. The disadvantage is that great care must be taken to guard against over-dosage. In this disease, muscles of the face, lips, jaws, tongue, throat and neck tend to tire suddenly and most disconcertingly.

Dr. Alvarez

According to a recent announcement of the Health Insurance Council, meeting in New York, just a year ago some 104,000,000 persons carried hospital insurance. About 89,000,000 carried insurance to pay a surgeon's bill, and 50,000,000 carried insurance to pay for other medical expenses.

My impression is that this is a better way of doing things than having them done by physicians paid by the state. I know that such insurance rarely covers all of a person's medical expenses, but as I have said before in this column, many of us can easily pay an occasional doctor's bill for a cold or we can even pay for an appendectomy. What we cannot pay for is some catastrophic illness, such as that due to a several-year-long bout with a crippling and very painful arthritis.

I remember an associate professor friend of mine whose old mother fell and broke her hip. Several months of hospitalization and an operation cost $5,000. On getting home, the old lady fell and broke the other hip, and with the expenses of that, there went the life of the old lady. If he had had insurance against catastrophic illness!

NEW DRUGS AGAINST CANCER

Many persons with scattered cancer ask me if somewhere in the world there is a medicine that will give them back their health. Hasn't all the research on cancer, carried out in many laboratories, brought forth some useful drugs?

Yes; helpful drugs have been found which will cure cancer of a certain type in certain species of animals, and will prolong the life of persons with certain types of malignant disease. Two of the best-known of these are called nitrogen mustard and triethylenemelamine; they help in some cases but unfortunately are of little value in the cases of advanced tumors that have originated in the skin.

According to a recent article by Dr. Jeanne C. Bateman, of the Garfield Memorial Hospital of Washington, D.C., many tumors are affected by two drugs called Thio-Tepa and ODEPA. These so-called phosphoramide which are used in big cancer hospitals, seem to be most helpful in the treatment of cancers of the breast, the ovary and the brain. The amounts of these drugs that can be used are limited by the chemical's tendency to lower the number of the white cells in the blood. This is a dangerous complication.

In the cases of all but a few of 34 women treated, with badly scattered cancer of the breast, there was decided improvement, with a lengthening of life.

Hundreds of new drugs are being tested each year, and those that are promising are then modified in many ways by chemists. These men try to change the medicine that it will be more injurious to the cancer and less injurious to the patient. That, of course, is the essential of any treatment for cancer. That it kill all the cancer cells without injuring too much the normal cells of the patient.

The x-ray man has this same problem: He tries to find a dose of radiation that will kill the cancer without, at the same time, burning the man. Today he may treat the patient as he sits on a stool that slowly turns around. With this technique he can concentrate a huge dose of x-rays in the tumor, deep in the body, without injuring the large area of skin through which the rays entered.

TRANSPLANTATION OF THYROID GLAND

Usually, the transplantation of an organ from one person to another, although skillfully done, does not help because within a few weeks the transplanted organ rejects the recipient's body regards it as foreign matter which must be digested and got rid of. In recent years it has been learned that an organ removed from a new-born infant hasn't yet become so differentiated and unique that a recipient will react violently against it. Accordingly, some two years ago (see report in Science, vol. 120, p. 936) Drs. J. A. Sterling and Ralph Goldsmith, of the Albert Einstein Medical Centre, Philadelphia, took from a 21-day-old infant, who had just died, his thyroid gland, and transplanted it into the groin of a woman of 29 who, 10 years before, had lost her gland through an operation for goitre. The result has been perfect, and ever since, the woman has been well and happy.

HOME GARDEN

By HILDA BEASTALL

Single-Tree Plan Super Simplicity

The suggestion in this column last week of creating a green garden to save on time and labor was received with reservations by at least one home owner.

"Still too much time needed to get the thing started," he claimed.

The house lot still needs to be improved, which is a problem if the owner has neither the time nor the inclination for it.

Then, the single tree idea occurred to me. One tree, chosen for year-round interest, plus an underplanting requiring to be sheared once annually—how is that for a minimum?

Any single lot at the back of a home would be improved by the planting of one tree. Chosen for the specific situation and placed so that it enhanced the view from the house, that one tree could be a joy to all, the year around.

I have in mind a specimen catalpa tree, Catalpa bignonioides (Indian bean tree), which is underplanted with Hypericum calycinum, a creeping evergreen which bears single golden blooms three inches across. These occur over a long period, usually from early June through fall.

The catalpa tree is deciduous, losing its large, soft leaves in winter. The flowers occur during July and August and hang in white clusters eight to ten inches long.

Shade, color, beauty of outline in its winter bareness, with its lower planting of evergreen shrub—can you beat this?

Union Charges RCMP Oversteps Authority

VANCOUVER (CP)—Attorney-general's department is investigating union charges that a Royal Canadian Mounted Police constable entered homes in the fishing village, 200 miles north of Vancouver, without permission and had damaged property.

The inquiry is being launched following a letter of protest by Homer Stevens, secretary of United Fishermen and Allied Workers Union Ind.

Stevens' letter urged Attorney-General Robert Bonner to conduct an "appropriate investigation" because "this officer has been overstepping his authority and is guilty of strong prejudice."

U.S. Services Code Old Stuff in Canada

OTTAWA (CP)—Long-standing Canadian military regulations seem to embody the spirit of the letter of a new United States military code of conduct, defence officials said Thursday.

The six-point U.S. code prescribed for American servicemen comes into effect Wednesday.

Its lofty principles, Ottawa officials said, seem to be implied, at least, in the Queen's regulations.

The U.S. code stipulates that an American fighting man should be prepared to give his life for his country, refuse to surrender on his own initiative, continue to resist after capture and evade to the utmost any questions put under physical and mental duress after capture.

In Canada, the oath of allegiance requires a serviceman to bear faithful allegiance to the sovereign and resist her enemies. By implication, resistance must continue until death, officials said.

TOPPLES IN TUB—Actress Lana Turner suffered a concussion of the brain in a bathtub fall at Acapulco, Mex., last week, her studio said Thursday. Extent of the injury was not discovered until Wednesday when Miss Turner was examined by Dr. Cameron B. Hall after complaining of pains in her back.

OTTAWA PROTESTS

Russ 'Facts' About Canada

OTTAWA (CP)—Canada today accused Russia of deliberately giving a distorted and untrue picture of Canada in the latest edition of the "large Soviet encyclopedia."

The charge was made in an article in the July-August edition of "External Affairs," a monthly bulletin issued by the external affairs department.

The article contains extracts from the new Russian encyclopedia to enable Canadians to judge for themselves "the bias, not to mention the veracity, of this official picture of Canada presented to the Soviet reader in a government-sponsored publication."

Main contention in the six-page article on Canada in the Soviet encyclopedia is that this country is dominated by capitalists who are under the thumb of United States imperialists. It says Canadian monopolies and the Liberal party want a third world war.

CANADIAN "FACTS"

Other "facts" about Canada in the Soviet encyclopedia:

1. "The armed forces of Canada are formally a part of the armed forces of the British Empire but in fact are commanded by a defence committee responsible to the cabinet of ministers and working according to the directives and under the control of the committee of the chiefs of staff of the U.S.A."

2. Radio broadcasting in Canada is "entirely in the service of the Anglo-American imperialists."

3. The U.S. is winning a bitter struggle with the United Kingdom for control of the Canadian economy.

4. The Progressive Conservative party, as well as the Liberal party, is linked with Canadian monopoly capital while the CCF leans on the well-to-do farmer and the petty bourgeoisie.

5. "The curricula and methods of teaching in Canadian schools are ruled by American pedagogy."

6. Canadian courts carry out a policy of repression against the working masses.

7. Eskimos and Indians "are deprived of elementary civil rights, are cruelly exploited and subjected to racial discrimination..."

8. Canadian agriculture is dominated by banks which "seize farms under the guise of assistance via one-sided loans and then they expropriate the land and all the property of the farmers."

9. Official Canadian statistics are deliberately falsified.

The Russian book says Canada's greatest literary figure undoubtedly is "Mr. Dyson Carter." An "external affairs

Emilie Dionne's Estate $171,086

TORONTO (CP)—Emilie Dionne's estate has been valued at $171,086. This was made known here after Olivia Dionne, father of the famous quintuplets, filed letters of administration in Nipissing district court in the matter of the estate.

Emilie died at Ste. Agathe, Que., Aug. 6, 1954.

When the surviving four quintuplets reached the age of 21 last May, they came into an estate of nearly $1,000,000, including part of Emilie's share of the money accumulated from endorsements of commercial products and from investments.

Their father had administered their business affairs for several years.

Rookie Palmer New Golf Leader

Shatters Par in Canadian Open;
First-Round Leader Skies to 74

TORONTO (BUP)—Arnold Palmer, a smooth-stroking first-year pro, was 13 strokes under for the first two rounds of the 46th annual Canadian Open Golf Tournament today, but the field still was as wide open as the easy Weston course.

GOLF SCORES

WESTON GOLF CLUB, Ont. (CP)—
Last year's U.S. Amateur champ put together rounds of 64 and 67 for a 36-hole total of 131, but the Latrobe, Pa., pro was far from secure. Handsome Jackie Burke Jr., out of Klamath Lake, N.Y., was just two strokes behind at 133 and there were 14 other pros who were no worse than six strokes back of the blond pace-setter, with half the tournament still to be played.

After Thursday's action, 102 out of the field of 195 were left and 152 was the bottom qualifying score.

NEVER WON
The 25-year-old leader has never finished better than a tie for second since he turned pro after winning last year's amateur title.

"I might have been playing just as well during the last month or so, but nothing happened," he explained. "My chip shots are probably the most improved part of my game." He didn't need any spectacular approach shots Thursday, but in the first round he exploded two in the cup from more than 30 feet from the pin.

Palmer trailed U.S. negro champion Charlie Sifford of Philadelphia by one stroke at the end of the first round, but Sifford blew to a two-over-par 74 Thursday for a half-way total of 167.

Palmer, who learned the game while caddyfying for his father, continued his steady sub-par shooting and had trouble with only one hole yesterday.

"My ball picked up some mud on my drive off the 15th and I got in trouble when my next shot was a bogey," he said. "It was his first in 36 holes."

Most pros hoped the fairways would get a haircut before the third round gets under way, but up until today, the course had been too wet to mow. However, most of the players were quite happy with the greens.

Tonight, Mary's Coffee Bar and James Bay meet at 6.30 with Foresters meeting Esquimalt Sunday at 2.30 in another first round game. Trade-Ats meet Sidney Monday night at 6.30.

FLETCHERS FAVORED AS PLAYOFFS OPEN

Senior Softball Form Chart

By LEON HALL

Once again it is playoff time in the Senior A Men's Softball League.

Tonight at Central Park, Cec Fletchers meet Chinese Students in the first game of a best-of-five semi-final in what should be a scrappy series.

So far this season, Students have always been a handful for the league champs, but, be that as it may, Students will still be the underdogs.

In addition to having a three-man pitching staff spearheaded by Barry Jackson, who won 13 games in league play; the top-dog Cec Fletchers have a solid batting line-up.

Their lead-off batter, Bernie Clarkson, won the batting championship with a .400 average and behind him they have the potential long-bat in Ab Wiebe, Flori Geogan,

BARRY JACKSON
... makes champs tough

Verne Evans and Chick Newman. With this balance Cec Fletchers are favorites to win the semi-final series and advance into the finals leading to the B.C. playoffs.

On the other hand, the Students have plenty of fight, and this spirit, along with a few breaks could lead to an upset.

The other half of the semi-finals will start Sunday afternoon, when second-place Arrow Furniture meets Victoria City. This series should shape up to a battle between Bud Ross, coach and pitcher of the city team, who won 12 games in league play, and Archie Sluggert, who won a total of 10 games.

As far as hitting goes, Arrows have a slight advantage and they also have the experience. This alone could prove to be the difference in these two teams.

From here it looks like Arrows and Cec Fletchers in the finals and a prediction that Fletchers will represent this city in the B.C. finals.

Seven Foot Tall, He Is!

Americans Dominate Canadian Swim Meet

MONTREAL (BUP)—United States swimmers were expected to rewrite still more chapters in Canadian record books today after setting the pace by smashing eight of 11 records broken in the first day of the Canadian swimming and diving championships.

The red-clad U.S. champions from Cincinnati, O., appeared on the basis of incomplete statistics to be paddling effortlessly away with the meet that will end up Saturday at McGill University's Sir Arthur Currie Gymnasium.

Eleven marks were broken between the time the first heats started at Thursday and when the swimmers pulled out of the pool for the night. Eight of the new title-holders were Americans.

TEAM SWEEP
The powerful mermaids of Washington's Walter Reed club, led by national champions Mary Jane Sears and Shelley Mann, won everything they entered.

Miss Mann made a new mark of 2:26.4 in the senior women's 200-yard medley. Miss Sears and Portia Hancock of Indianapolis, Ind., also beat the old record.

The Stan Thinkman-coached club, perennial team champions in the United States, made a clean sweep of the senior women 100 yards free style with Miss Mann, Wanda Warner and Douglas Gray placing first, second and third respectively.

All three times bettered the 1:00.3 Canadian record for the event. Miss Mann was timed at 58.9, while Miss Warner came in at 59.3 and Miss Gray in 59.6.

Miss Sears set an open record in the senior women 200-yard breast stroke. The U.S. nation breast stroke champion was

Gill Back With Irish; Timbermen Edge Pils

Tribe Here
For Rubber;
Booth Out

Coach Red McMillan of Victoria Shamrocks, in an attempt to deter the hungry Mt. Pleasant Indians, will ease the ailing Al Gill back into uniform tonight for the Intercity Lacrosse League clash at Memorial Arena.

Indians, solving Victoria's new defensive "system" 9-7 Wednesday night, squared the best-of-five semifinal series at one game each. Shamrocks won the opener with ease at Memorial Arena Monday night, 10-1.

McMillan's move to play Gill, despite his injured leg, stems from the loss of Larry Booth for tonight's game plus the continued absence of Whitey Severson. Severson has been on the shelf with a separated shoulder.

BOOTH, BRENNER OUT
Booth received an automatic one-game suspension Wednesday night along with Indians' Alf Brenner after the two had tangled in a stick-swinging episode and were assessed match penalties.

Indians will also be without the services of Skip McKay, who is getting married Saturday and will be lost to the club for the remainder of the season.

With Gill a definite starter, McMillan will return the scrappy forward on the line with Peeewe Bradshaw and Arnie Ferguson. Archie Brown, Jackie Northup and Jack Bionda will make up the second combination, with Al Davies, Bob Dobbie and Nip O'Hearn on the third forward wall.

Bob Monaghan and Jack Thompson will be one defensive combination in front of goalkeeper George Johnston, with Bill Bamford and Lou Landess as the other. Tom Druce will be utility.

With the exception of Gill, the Shamrocks will be in adequate physical shape for tonight's contest. Latest return to full efficiency is Johnston, whose trick knee forced him to miss a few games at the tail-end of the season.

HUSTLE NEEDED

A good deal more hustle is indicated on the part of the Rocks for tonight's crucial game. The Indians, despite the 10-1 shelling last Monday, have won three out of five on the big arena floor this season, and with the Mann Cup at stake, will be tougher than ever.

McMillan will combine his defensive tactics with "more alert ball-chasing," one of the faults that cost Victoria the 9-7 loss Wednesday.

Game time is 8.30.

Fight Results

LOS ANGELES—Don Jordan, 10-15, Los Angeles, outpointed Joe Miceli, 10-15, New York (10).

SINGAPORE—Nai Banong, Thailand, knocked out Don Rassi, Singapore (1) in six rounds.

Western Grid Clubs Sight on Grey Cup

VANCOUVER (BUP)—The Western Interprovincial Football Union set its sights on retaining the Grey Cup in Western Canada today as the football madness which has gripped the west since the end of the war showed no signs of letup.

In a million-dollar gamble to keep the coveted tankard west of the Great Lakes for a second year in succession, the five teams of the professional circuit embark on a gruelling 16 game schedule Saturday that probably will decimate each team with injuries before the schedule is out.

All teams — the defending Edmonton Eskimos, the Calgary Stampeders, Saskatchewan Roughriders, Winnipeg Blue Bombers and the British Columbia Lions — spent from $250,000 to $400,000 each this year on luring United States gridiron stars north of the border to shore up their slim Canadian line-ups.

SHIFT TO WEST

The financial success of Vancouver's freshman Lions last year resulted in a march on the Canadian Rugby Union by western delegates when the CRU met here this spring. Their arguments resulted in moving the Grey Cup west to Vancouver's Empire Stadium where 30,000 spectators are expected to gather on the last Saturday in November for the annual gridiron classic.

DOIG'S DUTIES WASTED?

'Bellies Protest Irish Victory

Shamrocks 11, Salmonbellies 7
Long, large Fred Doig fired Victoria Junior Shamrocks to a convincing 11-7 victory over New Westminster Salmonbellies at Memorial Arena Thursday night, but if the mainland crew have anything to say about it, his efforts will be in vain.

Salmonbellies are protesting the Victoria victory, which evened the best-of-three Intercity Junior Lacrosse League semifinal at one game apiece, on the grounds that Doig had played too many senior "B" games this year.

The big forward rapped in three goals to lead the Rocks to their much-needed triumph over the Salmonbellies. Fast gaining the reputation for fading in the stretch, the junior Irish closed with a surge to beat the mainlanders handily.

Shamrocks jumped to a 2-0 lead early in the first quarter, and from then on managed to keep at least one goal ahead of Salmonbellies. They held period leads of 4-2, 7-4 and 7-5.

HAMILTON HOT

Pine goalending by Victoria's alert Don Hamilton, who showed fine promise in making all the right moves, kept New Westminster at bay whenever the Rock defence showed signs of collapsing.

Sharp, accurate passing brought Shamrocks within the range of enemy goaltender Ken Coughtry time and again, but poor shooting and lack of finish around the net prevented them from increasing their margin.

Shamrocks allowed Salmonbellies to creep to within a 7-6 margin early in the wide-open fourth, but Ross Roskamp, who also scored three goals, applied the clincher at 4:43 with a brilliant solo effort.

Three goals to the losers' singleton amid a rash of penalties in the final minutes gave Rocks a handy lead at the bell. The game ended on a lonely note, with two members of each team resting in the penalty box.

Depending on the committee, the best of the Salmonbellies' protest, third game of the series is slated for New Westminster Monday night.

Scorers follow:
Junior Shamrocks—Doig 3, Roskamp 3, J. Shewers 1, Lawrence 1, Robinson 1, New Westminster—Falk 2, Robertson 1, Collins 2, Oddy 2 Total—7.

MANAGER SIGNED

LONDON (CP)—Sheffield United football club has signed Joe Mercer as manager, it was announced Thursday night.

OUTDOOR FRONT

With DENNY BOYD

Perhaps Mr. Angler is not saying just as much as he thinks he is when, coming home with his fish-bag, filled to limits, says proudly, "Man, did I ever outsmart those fish."

The fellow goes out to the certain spot he has staked as his own, at a time when his calculations say the tide is running to perfection. He elects his lure, the one he has modified in relation to his vast experience. He rigs it up with the length of leader his technique says is the only length, bends his flasher to a measured angle and weights it with lead figured delicately to the ounce.

Once fishing, his hand is always at the throttle, adjusting to the speed he knows is the right speed.

And then when he has caught his fish, he feels justified in saying: "Man, did I ever outsmart those fish."

But along comes Dr. James Westman of Rutgers University to shatter this reverie. Dr. Westman has been doing research among fish for 16 years.

He has reached these conclusions. Fish are stupid. They are suicidal. They refuse to learn by the most bitter experience. It takes no brain matter at all to outsmart a fish.

Now that's tough enough to take for the guy who has caught fish and wants a little credit for it. But it's even more galling for the guy who can't get fish. He, according to the researcher's findings, is being outwitted by a bunch of stupid (that's the word Dr. Westman uses) fish.

Dr. Westman has seen a fish caught, released and caught again within minutes on the same lure. Some fish have fallen for the same lure three times in almost as many minutes.

Dr. Westman says that chumming, where it is legal, is the best way to get fish because a fish, seeing one of his neighbors feeding, will bite at anything, just to get in on the banquet spirit.

He goes on to point out that a churning propeller, rather than scare a fish away from the danger of an approaching boat, often has the opposite effect and will lure a fish to its doom. (We on Vancouver Island, who have caught coho on the fly, with 20 feet of line trolled in the wake of the propeller, must agree on that point.)

Dr. Westman has other ideas. I don't know about you, but I don't want to hear any more of them. It's all a little ego-shattering.

And how about Dave Duke and Clive Piercy? Fishing at Cowichan Bay Wednesday, they brought in a catch of six fish, 32, 27, 26, 20 and 12 pounds. The fish were taken on a painted Louie plug and a Spar-X plug. . . . Bill Kirk Thursday was looking for people to kick him because he lost the biggest fish he ever had the pleasure of meeting. On Wednesday Bill took a 26-pounder but that was nothing, he claims, compared to the brute he hooked Thursday morning off Seawall Island. He had the big one on a Strip-Tearer, got it in close to the boat all though at one time, the fish had his planer clear out of the water, 100 feet behind the boat before it slipped the hook. . . . Gordy Hall reports coho activity off Brodie Ledge and the same thing is said of Oak Bay and 10-Mile Point.

Is English Soccer On Its Way Back?

By ARCH MACKENZIE
Canadian Press Staff Writer
LONDON (CP)—Another English soccer season begins Saturday, earlier than ever and with the customary confidence subdued by events at home and abroad.

The 92 teams of the professional football league, plus thousands of semi-pro and amateur clubs, will begin their season on Saturday.

Things could be better. The small fellow in the cloth cap and colored muffler, who takes his soccer standing on the close-ranked terraces round the country's stadia, will pay three times more a match this season—or a minimum of two shillings.

Some of the teams he yells for, particularly in the third division's two sections, may be playing on borrowed time.

TAKING SECOND PLACE
And he probably is nursing his share of the country-wide apprehension that British soccer has not come back the way it was supposed to do a year or so ago; that Britain's teams are close to being regarded as second rate in Europe and South America.

The increase in admission price, small but a larger matter for the average soccer fan, is the league antidote to the case of the missing millions. Another 1,000,000 spectators vanished last season, making 3,000,000 in two years.

Television, too much soccer by too many teams, and badly-played football share the blame.

The old-timers claim that the youngsters are too money-minded these days. The players' union is pressing requests for better wages, and a freer hand for players dealing with their clubs.

Newspapers have been full of diverse warnings, suggestions and theories argued by some pre-season events.

LOST TO BELFAST

A British team dropped a 4-1 decision to a second-string band of European players at Belfast last Saturday. Wolverhampton Wanderers, Britain's best team last year until the final month of the season, was beaten twice in Moscow. Added to England and Scottish losses at the end of last season to Hungary, France and Portugal, these results have cast gloom over the setting.

In keeping with club economies, the off-season produced no grandiose deals as teams pared their personnel.

The league also reported that commercial TV has upped its offer for individual matches to £1,000 but it is holding out for £5,000 or more.

Predictions on the teams themselves have been cramped by the

Vital Victory Eludes Pursuers

By The Associated Press

That big victory seems just out of the grasp of the teams chasing the American League pennant. The four contenders stay within reach but always manage to blow a chance to take command.

Boston Red Sox started it, dropping the final game of a three-game set with Yankees at New York after splitting the first two. Then Cleveland Indians dissipated a two-game lead of last week-end by losing three in a row.

Next, Yankees, who appeared to be rolling, misfired after winning seven straight and, though still on top by five percentage points, settled for a slim one-game edge.

Chicago White Sox missed the best Thursday by dropping the second game of a doubleheader with sixth-place Kansas City Athletics 5-3 after slipping ahead of Yankees, who were rained out at Boston, with a 6-2 victory in the first game.

Cleveland, meanwhile, climbed back to within a game of first place, and within three percentage points of White Sox, by ending its slump with a 5-3 decision over Tigers.

HELD LEAD TWICE

White Sox scored two unearned runs for an early lead in the night cap but still couldn't get home safe. Yogi Berra smashed a two-run homer in the sixth off loser Harry Byrd to tie it. And after Sherm Lollar homered Sox back into a 3-2 lead in the bottom of the frame, Byrd collapsed in the seventh.

Virgil Trucks won the opener, his 12th, although forced out when hit by a line drive in the sixth. Cleveland walked in as two Tiger errors led the way to a five-run eighth. That broke up a 1-1 duel between rookies Frank Lary and Herb Score. Indians' south-paw smash who fanned 13.

BROOKS SHAKE SLUMP

In the National League, Brooklyn Dodgers broke out of their "slump" to score three runs on five hits while pasting Jim Hearn in the first inning and rumbled on to an 8-5 decision over New York Giants. Jim Bessent won in relief.

Cincinnati Redlegs moved back into fifth place, displacing Chicago with a 2-1 victory over the Cubs. Four singles in the sixth scored the Redlegs runs off loser Paul Miner. Art Fowler gave six hits for the triumph.

Milwaukee Braves defeated St. Louis Cardinals 5-3 in the only night game with Warren Spahn recording his second victory in four nights and the 40th of his career over the Redbirds. Bill Bruton hit a two-run homer and Chuck Tanner one with the bases empty for the winners. Larry Jackson was the loser.

Manning Bans Papers From Press Parleys

EDMONTON (CP)—Liberal opposition leader J. Harper Prowse suggested in the Alberta legislature Thursday that Premier Manning reconsider his "ill-considered" action of banning Alberta's two largest newspapers from his press conferences.

Leading off the debate in reply to the speech from the throne, ex-newspaper man Prowse said the premier's action will hurt only the public which has a duty to be interested in public affairs.

He was referring to two press conferences called by Mr. Manning in the last two weeks. Representatives of the Calgary Herald and the Edmonton Journal were excluded. Both papers opposed the Social Credit party in the election campaign which preceded the June 29 Alberta election.

At Monday's press conference the premier announced the makeup of the five-man royal commission appointed to investigate opposition charges made during the election campaign.

Mr. Prowse, a reporter for the defunct Edmonton Bulletin before the Second World War, said the premier was entitled as an individual to dislike those who did not see things the way he does.

(At Monday's press conference representatives of The Canadian Press, British United Press and radio stations CFRN and CICA were invited and attended.)

"However, the premier holds press conferences, not as an individual, but as the head of government of this province," Mr. Prowse said. "When a person assumes a public office, one of the burdens which he assumes with that office is the loss of his right, when acting in an official capacity, to consider his own wishes as an individual."

Mr. Manning followed the Liberal leader as speaker but made no reference to press conferences.

Five Suspects In Drug Case Draw Remand

VANCOUVER (CP)—Four men from Montreal and a Vancouver man Thursday were remanded until Aug. 25 for preliminary hearing on charges of attempted murder and conspiring to traffic in narcotics.

Robert Tremblay, Lucien Mayer, James Malgren and Marcel Frenette, all of Montreal, were held without bail, as was Charles Talbot of Vancouver.

Charged with them, on the conspiracy count were Jean Paul Chevrier and Vincent Valois, rounded up in a recent narcotics raid which netted 30 persons.

More than a score of those taken in the roundup and charged with trafficking were remanded until Aug. 24.

The five were charged following the beating of Thomas Kinna, self-admitted former drug addict.

Health Plan Gets Backing

VANCOUVER (CP)—Labor leaders today joined with opposition political leaders in backing Premier Bennett's proposal to press for a national health scheme.

Premier Bennett said Thursday the B.C. government would seek a national health scheme, financed 50-50 by the federal and provincial governments. The proposal, he said, would be advanced at the October Dominion-provincial conference.

Dr. Gordon Ferguson of the B.C. Medical Association said: "I know the association would be quite ready to assist Premier Bennett in helping to plan a sound basis for a national health service."

Provincial Liberal leader Arthur Laing said he was in favor of a plan "visiting the costs of Canadian health on all the people of Canada."

"He can count on 100 per cent support from us," said E. E. Winch, veteran CCF member of the legislature and deputy leader of the B.C. House.

The proposal was termed "the best news of the summer," by Tom Alsbury, Vancouver Trades and Labor Council president.

ABOUT DOWNED PLANE Reds to Talk To UN Sunday

MUNSAN, Korea (UP)—The Communists today agreed to a request of the United Nations military command for an "urgent" face-to-face meeting to discuss the return of two American Air Force officers, shot down by the Reds Wednesday.

The meeting will be held at 10 a.m. Sunday.

Up to now the Communists—who shot down the plane over the neutral, demilitarized zone of Korea—have given no indication whether or not the two air force officers survived the crash of their small training plane.

Maj. Gen. Harlan C. Parkes, the U.S. air force general who heads the military armistice commission, said he "will demand that the Communists return the pilot and the passenger" of the small propeller-driven T-6 training plane shot down Wednesday by "trigger happy" Communist gunners in a new example of Communist "wanton barbarism."

POLIO INCIDENCE STILL RISING

CHICAGO (AP)—Polio will remain an enigma until man learns why it causes it to break out and spread in epidemic style, a medical scientist says.

Dr. Theodore J. Bauer, chief of the United States communicable disease centre, reports that incidence of the "baffling disease" had been growing in North America for more than a decade.

"Polio myelitis," he added, also is increasing in many other parts of the world, which suggests that we may be witnessing a world-wide pandemic, the end of which is not yet in sight.

Dr. Bauer said the disease will continue to be an enigma unless the basic epidemiological principles that govern its occurrence and spread are uncovered.

Truman Plans Barrage To Open Campaign

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former President Truman is planning a speechmaking campaign aimed at helping return the Democratic party to the White House.

The former president said Wednesday the Democrats can defeat President Eisenhower or any other Republican candidate in 1956 by starting early and "taking the issues to the people" in every state.

Truman will start the ball rolling by talks at French Lick, Ind., Aug. 29, and Detroit, Sept. 5. Two talks in California will follow about the middle of September.

"I'm going to tear into the Republicans," he declared.

Truman brushed aside any suggestion that he might be available as a candidate. He reiterated his support of Adlai Stevenson for the nomination if the former Illinois governor decides to make the race again. Stevenson's candidacy is regarded by most observers as a foregone conclusion.

$59,300 Contract Awarded For More Homes for Aged

Twilight Home Project To Have 16 More Units

Contract for the construction of 16 additional housing units for aged people today was awarded by Twilight Homes Ltd. to Sutton and Sons of Victoria.

The firm's successful bid was $59,300 for the construction of two buildings of eight units each for single persons. Architect for the project is Charles E. Craig.

An immediate start is planned on the dwellings on three acres of land situated adjacent to existing Twilight Homes at Cedar Hill and Cedar Hill Cross Roads.

The project marks the third undertaken by Twilight Homes in the past few years to provide low rental homes for elderly pensioners.

The first project included 20 units for 77 elderly people. These are opposite St. Luke's Anglican Church.

In 1953, Twilight Homes constructed four other units known as the Orphir Homes. These are situated on the Cross Road about one block from St. Luke's Church. The units accommodate 16 single persons.

Sponsors of the Twilight Homes are P. H. B. Dawson and Rev. Canon Frederick Pike of St. Luke's Church. The housing program was the first of its kind in Canada.

SCHOOL BIDS
Other local construction news include bids tendered for the new Colquitz Junior High School. H. E. Fowler submitted a bid of $498,866, the lowest tender received among seven competing contractors.

The firm's bid was $65,000 lower than School Board 61 estimate for the project.

Other bids are as follows: Farmer Construction, $508,853; McKinty and Sons, $498,343; A. Pollard Construction Ltd., $505,732; Luney Bros. and Hamilton Ltd., $503,999; Commonwealth Construction, $531,051; and Benet and White Construction, $524,989.

But even if the sun shines daily, and all day, it still won't be possible to beat the all-time high for sunshine recorded here—530.3 hours for the month of August in 1931.

1912 DELUGE
Heaviest rainfall ever listed for August—2.24 inches—came down.

Though dry so far this month, 1.31 inches fell in the area during July.

Little change is expected by the weather office within the next few days.

Rainfall to date this year is about 1½ inches below that of 1954, while sunshine this year is approximately three hours above 1954, which was considered a dull year with only 1,900 hours of sun.

ASK The TIMES

Q.—Can a person 60 or 65 years of age build under the National Housing Act providing he can put up the required percentage of the cost of the house and guarantee the monthly payments? In other words, does age make any difference?

A.—As the operation of the act is explained to this column, no general rule is stated as to the relation of age to loans. While the maximum term of a loan runs up to 25 years, the transactions are considered individually. The best plan for a person in the age brackets you mention would be to make an application to an approved lender and have all the facts considered. Chartered banks, insurance companies, and mortgage companies have power to issue loans.

Q.—When did Alberta become a province?

A.—The act erecting the territory into a province came into force Sept. 1, 1905. The same day was Saskatchewan's birthday as a province.

Ottawa Confirms New Glasgow Return Thursday

Naval headquarters in Ottawa overnight confirmed a report that the frigate New Glasgow is on her way back to Esquimalt from Pearl Harbor, instead of proceeding to the Far East to relieve the destroyer now on duty with the UN forces.

A Canadian Press dispatch from the capital quotes a naval spokesman as saying the "whole matter of Canadian naval participation in the Far East is under study by the government."

Meanwhile, naval operations here have been notified New Glasgow is due here next Thursday.

Milk Dispute Talks Bring 'No Results'

A "no results" report was issued in Vancouver Thursday following a meeting between nine major Vancouver milk firms and representatives of 1,100 members of the Milk Drivers' and Dairy Employees' Union (AFL-TLC).

The two groups have been in dispute for more than six months. Further talks were scheduled for Tuesday but union and management representatives declined comment.

In Victoria, a meeting with negotiating committee of the union has been requested by representatives of employers. Originally scheduled for Tuesday, it was postponed to Friday of next week, after a strike vote among 1,100 mainland milk drivers and inside workers has been counted.

A strike vote has already been taken here, with 140 members of the local voting for and 20 balloting against strike action.

Implementation of strike procedure here hinges on success or failure of Vancouver negotiations.

AID SOLARIUM

Street Parade To Boost Heidt Show

A down-town parade Saturday afternoon is planned in conjunction with the coming Herace Heidt show.

A band, two drill teams and three open cars seating Solarium Junior League members will parade through city streets starting at 2 p.m. in an effort to boost box office sales and aid the Solarium Building Fund.

The Heidt show, featuring over 40 stage performers and local talent, will show Wednesday at 8 p.m. at Memorial Arena.

The show is sponsored by the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Victoria branch, and half the club's net profit will go toward swelling Solarium coffers.

STILL SHORT
Solarium officials said today they are still 13 per cent short of the $334,000 goal needed to build a new Solarium at Gordon Head.

They are hoping contribution from the talent show will pick up a slack in donations from the mainland.

The fund was started early in June. It is hoped construction of the new building will start early next spring.

The Heidt show will present two and one-half hours of top entertainment.

Featured will be the Four Knights, recording stars; impersonator Dick Kerr; three-year-old drummer Keith Thibodeaux, and Allen Brennehan, 14-year-old sensation on the drums.

Five local artists will appear on stage with the show. They are Diana Bruntlett, 14-year-old violinist, popular 18-year-old singer Irene Janik, and the "Islanders" from Shawnigan Lake, an instrumental trio of twin brothers Bill and Jack Oulton and Ron Jenkins.

Tickets are now on sale at Eaton's Memorial Arena and the Eagles' Home, 751 View.

REMOTE BUNSBY ARCHIPELAGO EXPLORED

Museum Expedition Discovers Fisherman's Paradise

A two-man provincial museum expedition returned to Victoria this week after spending 12 arduous days exploring the remote Bunsby archipelago off the west coast of Vancouver Island and an old abandoned Indian village.

Dr. Clifford Carl, museum director, and Charlie Guiguet, biologist, reported finding old totem poles at the former Indian village, and a "fisherman's paradise" on Bunsby Island, situated several miles north of Kyuquot Sound.

The Indian village was found on Vancouver Island, a short distance from Bunsby Island.

The village was practically overgrown with vegetation, they said.

The two scientists reported they had to trek through thickets of salmon berries 12 feet high to reach the village. Here they found two totem poles and remains of Indian dwellings almost hidden by the thick vegetation.

Photographs of the Indian site were taken by Dr. Clifford Carl.

But the two men spent most of their time exploring Bunsby Island in search of large and small animals and recording the biological aspects of the island.

"The fishing off the island was great," said Mr. Guiguet. "You just throw in a lure, pull it out immediately, and you have a fish."

"We feasted on abalones," he added. "They were as plentiful as pebbles on the beach. There was also an abundance of clams."

He said the growth of various forms of sea life in the area was tremendous.

"We picked up a star fish which measured 3½ feet across," said Mr. Guiguet. "Some forms of sea life were five times as big as seen on the east coast of Vancouver Island."

Mr. Guiguet said they saw a salamander, a type of lizard, deer and two species of grouse on the island.

Mr. Guiguet said they had little time for themselves. They were up at 4:30 in the morning and spent the rest of the day setting over 40 traps to capture various forms of small mammals. Every day the traps had to be checked and re-set.

The purpose of the trip was to make a zoological survey of the islands. The expedition is part of a program to survey all islands off the west coast of the island. This has never been done before.

Presentations Made Commissioners

Keeping busy right to the end of his term as Lieutenant-Governor of B.C., Hon. Clarence Wallace on Thursday made presentations of long-service and good-conduct medals to 24 members of the Corps of Commissioners at an investiture at Government House. His Honor will be vacating Queen's representative office early next month. His successor has not been named. Shown chatting with Mr. Wallace following presentation of medals are A. H. Brien, 1346 Mitchell, on left, and W. J. Parry, 1110 Greenwood.

Commissioner Brien received 15-year service medal, and Commissioner Parry a five-year medal. Mr. Parry also holds the Arctic Medal for service on the RCMP patrol vessel St. Roche in the northern ice fields. He joined crew of the boat in 1928. (Times Photo.)

BETWEEN TIMES

By MONTE ROBERTS

Friend of mine who specializes in worrying about the future has really excelled himself.

Usually, he confines himself to moderate-future-type worries, such as worrying what to give his wife for Christmas—not this coming Christmas, the one after.

But what he is worrying about now is, what comes after nineteen hundred and ninety-nine?

"I don't mind 1960 or 1975 or 1988," he says. "But what am I going to do when it comes to 2000?"

"I am so used to the time of the century being 19-something, I don't know what will happen to me when 19 is no more," he adds. "I am sure it will have a very bad effect on my, physically, mentally, and morally."

Upon cross-examining my friend, I learned some of the things which are bothering him about the century to come.

He doesn't think he will be able to get used to living in the 21st century.

"The 20th century has a nice round, fully packed sound to it," he says. "The 21st century sounds all out of balance."

Also, he is worried about the first year of the 21st century.

"What will we call it?" he asks. "The year two triple zero? The year 2000? Or should we continue the pattern of the 20th century?"

My friend also objects to the year 2000 on the basis it looks, in print, like less instead of more than 1999. Or even 1955.

"I have a feeling we will be taking a backward step when we enter 2000, or two triple zero, or twenty hundred," he says. "Perhaps that is why it will be called the turn of the century."

My friend visualizes matters getting worse as the century rolls along. "Imagine the year 2001," he says. "What a horrible, unlikely name for a year. Or 2020 sounds like an optometrist's report. Right up to 2099, we are going to have trouble with that century."

"No good is going to come of it," my friend concludes, darkly. "We had better stay right where we are in the present century."

I thought I would pass my friend's warning along now, while you still have plenty of time to avoid 2000. Or two triple zero, or twenty hundred.

Build Your Week-End Meals Around Locally-Grown Foods

By PENNY SAVER

And what's on the local scene today? I mean, of course, the local fruit and vegetable scene in our brightly decked markets and shops in town. Everywhere I look, I see more and more luscious foods, bursting with goodness and color. Most of the products shown are grown right in and around Victoria, while some of them are flown in from hotter climates. Beans are a fresh green for 35 cents a pound, while the stringless ones are 25 cents a pound. Crunchy fresh bunches of carrots are being sold at two for 15 cents, and two for 19 cents, depending where you buy.

Sweet yams are 23 cents a pound, and would taste awfully good with a week-end ham or fried in honey. Peas are two pounds for 35 cents, and corn on the cob is selling at five for 35 cents and four for a quarter. Vegetable marrow is 15 cents for two pounds.

Fresh fruit is always welcome, whether it's sunny or rainy. For snacks or a light finish for a good dinner, fruit, either cooked or as is, receives a real welcome in our house. Sweet nectarines are going down. Now six for 25 cents. Pears are three for a quarter, and peaches are four for a quarter.

Honeydew melons are at a pretty standard price of 55 cents each, while cantaloupes have dropped a little and are now 15 cents each. Here's something a little different for those of you who like to make pickles and the like. Pickling walnuts are being sold in one store for two pounds for 39 cents.

Grapes, one of the most popular fruits, have dropped in price along with some of the other foods. Seedless green grapes are 20 cents a pound, while Malaga are the same 20 cents, and Ribiers are 28 cents a pound.

There are still berries on the market. Raspberries are two boxes for 45 cents, while loganberries are two for 35 cents. Blueberries are 35 cents a box. Rose-sided apricots are

'Right Type of Man' For Girl to Decide

By ELIZABETH B. HURLOCK, PhD

What a mother considers the "right" type of man for her daughter may not be what the daughter considers "right."

"I was young because the boys I liked didn't show any interest in me. I married a man I thought I was in love with—a good man and devoted in many ways—but I found out 25 years ago what I thought was love was not. My life has not been a happy one, and I want my daughter, who is 19, to avoid what I went through. I have given her chances to go around these pitfalls, but it is no good. She wouldn't go to college but has gone to work. The young men she meets are not desirable, but she doesn't bring them home so we can meet them. She talks to them in town when she goes out with her girl friends. Because she can't or won't talk on subjects young college persons talk about, she ignores college youth. How can I make her see that she is heading for the same mistake I made?"

(A)—First, you are making a mistake when you stress the fact that a college man would make a more desirable husband for your daughter than one who did not go to college. There are many fine husbands who have never stepped inside a college, just as there are college men who make very poor husbands.

Second, you are wrong in condemning the young men your daughter knows as "undesirable" without having met them. The reason she does not want to bring them home is doubtless that she knows how you feel about her marrying a college man and she wants to avoid embarrassing situations.

The only way you can hope to help your daughter avoid making a mistake in choosing a husband is to encourage her to bring the young men she knows home, so you can get to know them. Why not ask her to invite them to dinner, for Sunday night supper, or have a small, informal party with some of the girls she knows and their boy-friends? Then if you have reason to believe that these young men are "undesirable" you can point out why.

It's only a figure of speech, of course. But, parking "on a dime" is a good way to describe how little space you need for the Zephyr, one of Ford's British-built cars. WHY GROW OLD?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Breath, Weight Problems Plague Column Readers

(The Friday Question Box)

Q. "I have a question. I have very bad breath even though my teeth are in good condition. I visit my dentist regularly and brush my teeth often?"

A. Diseased teeth and poor mouth hygiene are two of the most usual offenders. However, since this cannot be your problem, you might think of diseased tonsils or adenoids, or sinus trouble. Indigestion can also be the reason. Also, use some of the improved chlorophyll products.

Q. "I am 13 years old, five feet 4 1/2 inches tall. I weigh 138 pounds. My bust measures 34, waist 28, and hips 42. Please tell me if I am too small or too large."

A. You are overweight and I think that this is your main problem. I suggest that you reduce under the care of a doctor, and also that you concentrate on hip slimming exercises while doing so. You might reduce successfully without a physician's direction. If you would be sensible, in other words, if you would eat a well balanced diet consisting of whole grain products, eggs, lean meat, citrus fruit juices, fresh vegetables and fruits, and would forget candy, desserts, fried foods, cream, the soda fountain, and go a little light on butter.

However, you are enough overweight, and young enough to make it wiser to talk to your doctor about this.

Q. "I am 16 years old. I have lost 15 pounds and I did it gradually. Therefore, I cannot understand why many of my friends say that reducing has ruined my looks. I ate a well balanced diet and frankly I think I look 100 per cent better. But I wonder, since my girl friends say that I look awful. Am I kidding myself?"

A. Do not be discouraged except with the frailties of human nature. If I were a betting woman I would bet you at least a lollipop or two, that the friends who say that you look so awful after losing excess poundage are either overweight themselves, or not as pretty or popular as you are!

Fairfull, HMG Dockyard, entertained at a trousseau tea on Wednesday afternoon and evening for her daughter, Miss Marguerite Fairfull, whose marriage to Mr. Peter Townshend takes place on Saturday afternoon. About 70 guests called to see the bride's trousseau and the wedding presents. Mrs. H. R. Townshend, mother of the groom-elect, Mrs. Norman Paterson, and Miss Lorraine Paterson assisted the hostess. The refreshment table, at which Miss Ethel Johns and Mrs. Clifton Steele presided in the afternoon and Mrs. Tom Taylor and Mrs. Robert O'Meara in the evening, was centred with an arrangement of pink snapdragons flanked by pink candles.

A model of a trailer behind a sports car holding a miniature bride and groom held the many gifts for bride-elect Miss Kay Angus at a miscellaneous shower held in her honor recently by Mrs. George Moodie, Brentwood, and Mrs. J. C. F. Blouwe, at the home of the latter. Corsages of pink carnations were presented to the guest of honor and to her mother, Mrs. E. P. Angus. A yellow and white shower cake, inscribed "Best Wishes, Kay and Andy," was cut by the bride-elect. Guests were Mrs. W. Angus, Mrs. M. Angus, Mrs. G. Burkholder, Mrs. C. Walker, Mrs. Dolly Jones, Mrs. Jack Fouracre, Mrs. A. W. Bentley, Mrs. P. McHardie, Mrs. Don Walker, Mrs. D. Robinson, Mrs. F. Fiddes, Vancouver, B.C.; Mrs. H. Harnsworth, Mrs. D. Mooney, Misses Nancy Price and Donna Mooney.

Miss Patti Jones entertained recently with a miscellaneous shower at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Sinclair Jones, 2739 Cadboro Bay Road, in honor of Miss Joan Kensington, who will be married this Saturday. Gifts were "found" by the bride-elect and guests after a "treasure hunt" through the house. Refreshments were served by the hostess and her mother, Mrs. Thomas Vickers, grandmother of the groom, presided at the tea table. Guests were Mrs. Trevor Kensington, mother of the bride-elect; Mrs. V. Phillips, Mrs. J. Gurney, Mrs. J. Burns, Misses Sue Mitchell, Sylvia Ditchburn, Shirli Marshall, Shirley Green, Dorothy Sullivan, Audrey Jahn, Carol Jones, Cecile Clayton, Gail Champion, Barbara Dale, Marlon Stevenson, Gaylene McGrath and Margaret Little.

Noel-Hayton Wedding Vows Taken In Floral Setting in St. John's

Calgary will be the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Herbert Noel, who were married recently in St. John's Anglican Church.

The bride, the former Miss Roberta Lucille Hayton, is the daughter of R. E. Hayton, Winnipeg, Man., and Mrs. Hayton, 1502 Jubilee Avenue, Victoria. Her groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Noel, 1429 Richardson Street, Canon C. W. Downer officiated at the ceremony, held in a setting of pastel-toned gladioli.

Organist was T. Myers, and soloist, Miss Frances Murray, sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of imported Chantilly lace over nylon tulle, fashioned with a bateau neckline, lily point sleeves and a slim waistline. The back of the skirt featured three sweeping tiers of lace over tulle. A lace coronet trimmed with seed pearls and iridescent sequins held her fingertip veil which was trimmed with Chantilly lace. Deep pink Lincolnshire roses were in her bouquet.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Roy Macdonald, sister of the groom, wore a pale blue embroidered nylon over organdy waltz-length dress with a round neckline and cap sleeves. Her bandeau head-dress was of matching material and colonial style bouquet of pink flowers.

Bridesmaids, Mrs. Laverne Ayton and Mrs. Gordon Whitehead and bridesmaid, Miss Edythe Hayton, sister of the bride, were all gowned in a similar style to the matron of honor and carried matching colonial bouquets. Miss Karen Hayton, youngest sister of the bride, was flower girl, in a pink embroidered nylon over organdy dress with scalloped neckline and full skirt. She wore a bandeau of organdy and forget-me-nots and carried a miniature of the bridal bouquet.

Jack Noel, Vancouver, brother of the groom, was best man, and Roy Macdonald, Laverne Ayton and Gordon Whitehead were ushers.

Rev. J. R. Carpenter proposed the toast to the bride's happiness at a reception in St. John's Memorial Hall. The head table was covered with a white lace cloth made by the groom's mother. Centring the table was a three-tier wedding cake, decorated with pink rosebuds and silver ornaments and flanked by silver candelabra and crystal vases of pink rosebuds and gypsophylla.

Gifts were presented in a gaily decorated basket in tones of green and pink. Invited guests were Mrs. W. Riddle, Mrs. P. Warren, Mrs. F. Webb, Mrs. B. Elliott, Mrs. R. B. Elliott, Mrs. K. Wilson, Mrs. K. Hollett, Mrs. A. Longland, Mrs. H. Purdy, Mrs. H. Warner, Mrs. J. Bull, Mrs. A. M. Clearhue, Mrs. G. Fagerberg, Mrs. Hunt, Misses Joyce Bull, Joan Bull and Dorrit Greene.

Mr. and Mrs. K. H. Hayton are at present in Victoria and will leave this week-end for Calgary, where the groom is stationed with the RCAF. (Paul Jonas Studio.)

The young couple spent a honeymoon in Vancouver. The bride chose for her going-away outfit a dusty rose dressmaker suit with navy accessories, topped with a grey Chinese kid-skin fur jacket, the groom's gift. Her corsage was of Komomo carnations.

Exquisite Satin Wedding Gown Worn by Thursday Evening's Bride

Miss Georgina May Gore Lowe made a lovely bridal picture as she entered First United Church, Thursday evening, on the arm of her father for her marriage to Richard Pershing Joe.

The bride was gowned in a classic gown of white satin, fashioned with a floor-length skirt extending into a train, and a bodice featuring a neckline embroidered with pearls. A satin headpiece, jeweled with pearls, held her French mistle-tulle tiered veil. Her bouquet was of red roses and stephanotis.

Dr. W. G. Wilson officiated for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Y. Lowe, 961 Pembroke Street, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Joe, 2223 Vancouver Street.

A quartet of attendants in pastel-toned gowns was in the bridal party. Maid of honor was Miss Louise Quan, in a coral net gown. She carried yellow bebe gladioli. Bridesmaid, Miss Fanny Mar, wore aqua green, and carried pink gladioli and junior bridesmaid, Miss Diana Lowe, sister of the bride, wore a yellow gown and carried pink gladioli. Miss Lorraine Chan was a petite flower girl in a mauve net gown, complemented with a bouquet of yellow gladioli.

Best man was Gordon Chan.

Chess Masters Pressed In Canadian Tourney

OTTAWA (CP) — International masters had a hard time in third round play of the 52nd national chess tournament.

Canadian co-champion Frank Anderson of Toronto adjourned his match with Walter Jursevs-kis of Vancouver Thursday night after 45 moves. Jursevs-kis played the white in the match which will resume today.

Dr. Fedor Bohatirchuk of Ot-tawa, Russian-born international master, played to a draw with ex-Hungarian champion Geza Fuster of Toronto.

The third international master competing, Paul Valtonis of Hamilton, lost his match to 23-year-old Lionel Joyner of Montreal, in only 22 moves.

In second-round matches Dr. Bohatirchuk and Frank Anderson agreed to a draw in 45 moves after five hours of play and B.C. champion Walter Jursevs-kis of Vancouver was de-feated in 39 moves by Paul Valtonis.

Ivan Suk of Toronto scored his first win, defeating George Raletich of Edmonton, who played white, in 45 moves.

FORMER CHAMP BEATEN
Heinz Matthal of Montreal, on the offensive, defeated Rudolph Draxl, Toronto, in 49 moves.

Ross Siemms, 13, of Toronto played the white to defeat Maurice Fox of Montreal, eight times Canadian champion, after 44 moves.

Fourth-round play begins to-night, with standing of Anderson and Jursevs-kis in doubt until the adjourned game is completed today. Before Thursday night's play Anderson had 1½ points and Jursevs-kis, who lost his first two games, was scoreless.

Standing of other contestants: Joyner, Siemms, 3 points; Fuster, 2½; Bohatirchuk, Valtonis, Matthal, 2; Suk, 1; Fox, Draxl, Raletich, 0.

The round-robin tournament.

Beban Park Lease Signed by Board; Plan Dedication

NANAIMO (CP) — Nanaimo fall fair board has decided to study former director Phil Piper's proposal to hold a formal opening and, if possible, dedication of Beban park in connection with the coming fall fair.

The board named Mr. Piper and Mrs. Sherman Deno to study the matter.

The board has signed a 20-year lease on the park property, and now is clear to make immediate plans for stock car, horse, and harness racing on the property. Office of the board will be moved to Beban park as soon as possible.

According to board plans, the park will become the main sports ground for the Nanaimo area.

of visitors leaving Thursday night via CPR reached more than 1,600, a record this year. Spanish-speaking guests of Victoria, above, were Mercedes Martinez Parraga, Enrique Varona and Berta Carrillo. (Times Photo.)

100,000 Cheer Marilyn Bell

Toronto Triumphant Welcomes Youngest Channel Conqueror

TORONTO (CP)—Swimmer Marilyn Bell's hometown today gave her one of the biggest ticker-tape welcomes the city has ever seen.

As she returned from Europe and her conquest of the English channel, thousands of persons jammed hot downtown streets to cheer her and her party.

The 17-year-old swimmer, who landed at suburban Malton airport during the noon hour of the last lap of her journey home, was whisked into the city by a motorcycle escort to a point near the downtown Union Station where a parade formed up for the victory march up Bay Street to the City Hall and a civic reception.

For more than an hour before the parade started, festoons of multi-colored streamers and ticker-tape were hanging from windows in the Bay Street financial district and were carried by the rising hot air into the skies.

DRAPED WITH STREAMERS

Street cars continued to run until the moment of the parade. They were draped with the long tapes thrown from the upper storeys of the big financial houses by excited staff members.

Crowds started gathering outside City Hall more than three hours before Marilyn was due. Families brought their lunches with them and camped on the lawns in front of the building.

to wait in humid heat for the welcome-home ceremonies.

Deputy clerk Edgar Norris estimated the City Hall crowd at more than 100,000 persons and described it as the "biggest since the 1951 royal tour."

Riding behind three bands in a gale of thunderous cheers and billowing ticker-tape, Marilyn smiled and waved as she moved slowly up Bay Street in an open convertible.

Mounted city police officers led the parade up to the steps in front of City Hall where Mayor Nathan Phillips and members of the board of control welcomed Marilyn.

The mayor, declaring it "a great day for Canada," said Marilyn exemplified "the unconquerable Canadian spirit which never says die."

He presented her with a chest of sterling silver, a gift from the citizens of Toronto. To Gus Ryder, her coach in the channel swim and in her triumph last September over Lake Ontario, went a silver platter.

Marilyn's trans-Atlantic plane, due at Montreal early this morning, had to overfly Dorval airport there and land at Ottawa because of fog.

The Super-Connie aircraft made three unsuccessful passes over Dorval airport while Montreal Mayor Jean Drapeau, Shriners' officials and a corps of newsmen waited to greet her.

STRAIT PLANS NOT DEFINITE

OTTAWA (CP)—Swimming star Marilyn Bell said today she has made no definite plans for tackling the treacherous Juan de Fuca straits on the Pacific coast.

"It is just an idea at present," she told reporters at nearby Uplands airport on her way home from Britain.

Patrick to Retire; Family Keeps Cougars

Lester Patrick, hockey's famed "Silver Fox," will sever active connection in the near future with the sport he has fostered and grown with for over half a century.

This was intimated today by Fred Hutchinson, general manager of the Victoria Cougars of the Western Hockey League, of which Patrick is major stockholder.

Hutchinson today confirmed rumors to the effect that Patrick, Canada's "Mr. Hockey" for 55 years, is consummating a deal whereby sons Lynn and Murray, and Hutchinson take over control of the Cougars.

It is believed that Patrick will turn over his interest in the club to his two sons, both of whom have followed their father's footsteps in the game, to keep the Patrick name alive in hockey in Victoria while

Lester himself slips quietly into retirement.

Hutchinson told the Times today that "while any announcement now is premature, a deal is under way between the parties involved." Hutchinson revealed that the "parties" were Patrick, his two sons and himself.

DATE INDEFINITE

The Cougar general manager declined to name the exact date of Patrick's retirement, or the actual terms by which 72-year-old Patrick will dispose of his interest in the club.

"There is a remote possibility that the sale will fall through," said Hutchinson, "but a definite announcement will be made in the near future."

Patrick himself, "declined to make any comment" when asked for confirmation on the pending sale.

Antidisestablishmentarianism Slows Peron Plan in Argentina

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—Argentina's senate has authorized President Juan Peron to delay action on the explosive issue of separating church and state, even as the government renewed its dispute with Roman Catholic leaders.

The senate Thursday night put its stamp on the government bill which already has cleared the lower house. If Peron signs it, election of a constitutional assembly to sever the church's official ties with the state could be held off until next May. The original law called for an election before Nov. 23.

Under the present constitution, Roman Catholicism is Argentina's official religion and the president must be of that faith. But the Vatican excommunicated Peron last June during his bitter feud with church leaders whom he accused of starting an insurgent political movement.

The senate acted less than 24 hours after Justice Minister Oscar Albrieu accused seven priests in Buenos Aires of using the pulpit to incite "a campaign of disobedience" against Peron.

PRIZE FOR CROSSWORD JUMPS UP TO $400

One of the key clues that prevented thousands of Times Crossword puzzlers from winning last week, was a truly tricky one. So no one collects the $375 prize offered, and this week the total award for a correct answer jumps to $400.

"Stills" was the answer to 4-down. "To be seen in an English movie theatre, of course" was the clue and most crossworders gave the answer as "stalls." The clue, to be "seen" favors something intended as an amusement or diversion which would embrace "stills" rather than "stalls"—the term used in describing certain seats in English theatres.

"Trips" was another answer seemingly difficult to arrive at, most contestants coming up with "Trip" or "Trim." Complete answer and explanation for last week's puzzle together with a new puzzle for this week appears on Page 22 of today's paper.

Jets Blamed For Mystery Oak Bay Blasts

Explosive 'Sonic Barrier' Waves Rock Homes, Make Plaster Fall

An unidentified jet aircraft bursting the sound barrier seems the most likely culprit in regard to four mysterious explosions heard in Oak Bay between 3 and 3:10 p.m. Thursday.

Dozens of residents reported seeing a vapor trail in the sky at the time, and one, Mrs. D. I. Douglas, 1584 Clive Drive, told Oak Bay police she saw an aircraft.

She told police further that her daughter, who has heard the explosion an aircraft makes as it reaches the speed of sound, said Thursday's mystery blasts were closely akin to the aircraft phenomenon.

The explosions were heard over a restricted area, but appeared to have come from the southeast, over water. They were heard between the Uplands and Shoal Bay, and westward into Fairfield, but elsewhere in Victoria they went unheard.

Mrs. J. T. Lee, 2550 Maynard, in the Ten Mile Point area, said the sound was that of a ladder being placed against the house, and flakes of plaster fell from the ceiling.

A window was blown out of a basement door at the home of W. J. Roper, 161 Beach Drive, and Oak Bay police were quite convinced that a truck had hit Oak Bay municipal hall.

About half the employees in the building felt the tremor, police said.

Frank Partridge, 151 Beach Drive, said each of the four blasts "really shook" his house.

There are many things the blasts were not. W. G. Milne, seismologist at the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory, said there was no earthquake, and the navy said no ships were firing. The army had an anti-aircraft practice at 3 p.m. at Albert Head, far to the west.

RCAF spokesmen at Vancouver and Comox said aircraft from their stations were not responsible, and United States air force officials could throw no light on the subject.

STRICT ORDERS

Lieut. Alex Crewdson, at McChord air force base near Tacoma, said pilots flew under strict and specific regulations regarding exceeding the speed of sound, and that manoeuvres calling for supersonic speeds were held over thinly populated areas.

"Our aircraft were not in the Victoria area at that time," said Lieut. Walter C. Burke, USAF, of the Paine Air Force Base near Everett, Wash.

Experts have agreed, though, that the characteristics of the blasts, such as being heard generally in a limited area, were those of sound barrier passage.

"It could even have come from a long distance if weather conditions were right," one observer said. "After all, it is only 20 miles from the Olympics where this kind of thing is done occasionally."

Attlee Has Mild Stroke

GREAT MISSENDEN, England (UP)—The wife of Labor party leader and former prime minister Clement Attlee confirmed today that Attlee suffered "a light stroke" last week. She said the 72-year-old socialist leader was stricken with a mild cerebral thrombosis—a blood clot on the brain.

But she said he was back on his feet again, following a week of medical treatment, and now is "fully recovered."

Morocco Faces 'Bloody Climax' Of Terrorism

Crisis Expected To Come Saturday

MEKNES, Morocco (Reuters)—Demonstrators sacked and set fire to European-owned shops in rioting in the Arab quarter of Kenitra, in the Meknes area, today.

It was not immediately known if there were any casualties.

First reports said a demonstration began peacefully but soon became violent. Moroccans raged up and down the streets pillaging and wrecking shops and leaving them in flames.

The new disorders came on the eve of the second anniversary of France's deposition of the popular sultan, Mohammed Ben Youssef.

Globet Grandval, French resident-general in Morocco, arrived in Paris today for talks with government leaders on the growing tension in the protectorate.

The French government on Thursday granted Sultan Moulay Ben Arafat a breathing space in his bid to form a representative government. But hopes are fast fading that he can succeed before the crisis explodes into violence.

CALLING BALMORAL?

Townsend Reported Burning Up Wires

LONDON (UP)—Group Captain Peter Townsend and the British Royal Family were reported today to be burning up the telephone wires between Brussels and Balmoral Castle in Scotland.

Townsend is in Brussels currently on leave from his position there as British air attaché. Princess Margaret is at Balmoral for her 25th birthday celebration Sunday when she becomes free to marry without the consent of her sister, the Queen.

London's tabloid Daily Sketch, in a dispatch from Brussels, said "crucial messages have passed during the last 48 hours between 41-year-old Group Captain Peter Townsend and the

(UP and AP Dispatches)

NEW YORK—A dying hurricane poured flood waters across the northeastern United States today, inundating hundreds of communities, taking at least 22 lives and causing damage in the hundreds of millions.

Western Connecticut and Massachusetts were declared official disaster areas. Sections of Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Rhode Island, Virginia, Maryland and the District of Columbia were awash with the waters from spilling rivers and bursting dams.

Ten thousand blasting caps, capable of blowing up any bridge they touch, were washed into Pennsylvania's Schuylkill river from a flooded powder plant and coursed down the swollen stream toward Philadelphia.

Rail service was suspended and highways were useless throughout the affected states. Army, Coast Guard and National Guard forces used boats, amphibious vehicles and helicopters to rescue stranded residents and campers from rooftops and trees.

The disastrous downpour was attributed by the weather bureau to a dying spurt from one-time-hurricane Diane.

Almost all methods of travel to Scranton, Pa., were cut off by the rampaging Lackawanna River—which went nine feet above flood stage—or other streams that became swirling carriers of desolation.

More than 50 persons were stranded on manufacturing plant rooftops in Scranton as the city issued a plea for aid.

The main business district of Tamaqua, Pa., went under five feet of water from the Schuylkill River.

Bursting Dams Threaten Towns

In the Pocono mountain resort area of Pennsylvania, a dam burst at Tobyhanna but there were no reports of casualties.

A dam overflowed at Howley, in northeast Pennsylvania, isolating the community of 1,600. Some 300 passengers were removed from two stranded trains in Pennsylvania by helicopter and army truck.

More than 250 boy scout campers were rescued by helicopter from a Delaware river island and 33 youngsters were similarly plucked from a private camp endangered by the flooding Neversink river.

The Red Cross rushed disaster specialists from as far away as St. Louis to the stricken areas. Fifty Red Cross shelters were in operation before noon. Precautions against typhoid fever were begun in a number of Connecticut communities where water supplies were contaminated. One town, New Britain, roped off an evacuated area for fear of a polio outbreak.

Northwestern Connecticut, a network of river valleys, was hard hit. The cities of Torrington, Winsted and Bristol were completely cut off.

A number of the already flooded Connecticut communities in the Farmington River valley were in peril of their very existence should engineers fail to hold Massachusetts' Otis reservoir dam against the burgeoning waters.

More than 12 inches of rain had fallen in the Massachusetts and Connecticut areas in the last 48 hours and it was still coming down at mid-morning.

The greatest deluge was at Hazelton, Pa., where 9.35 inches of rain fell in 21 hours.

PRIZE FOR CROSSWORD
JUMPS UP TO $400

One of the key clues that prevented thousands of Times Crossword puzzlers from winning last week, was a truly tricky one. So no one collects the $375 prize offered, and this week the total award for a correct answer jumps to $400.

"Stills" was the answer to 4-down. "To be seen in an English movie theatre, of course" was the clue and most crossworders gave the answer as "stalls." The clue, to be "seen" favors something intended as an amusement or diversion which would embrace "stills" rather than "stalls"—the term used in describing certain seats in English theatres.

"Trio" was another answer seemingly difficult to arrive at, most contestants coming up with "Trip" or "Trim." Complete answer and explanation for last week's puzzle together with a new puzzle for this week appears on Page 22 of today's paper.

Campney Flatly Denies Wrongdoing

OTTAWA (BUP)—Defense Minister Ralph Campney today branded as "wholly incorrect and unwarranted" Vancouver newspaper reports that he was a director of a company that leased certain property to the federal government.

Answering Conservative Leader George Drew, Campney said, in part:

"At no time did I, directly or indirectly, have anything to do with the leasing by the federal government of property at 4071 Kingsway, South Burnaby, for use as a post office, as is inferred in an article in the Vancouver Sun on Tuesday last."

Veteran Royal City Alderman Dies

NEW WESTMINSTER (BUP)—Alderman Alex Courtney, a veteran member of the New Westminster city council, died suddenly in hospital here today. He was 64.

Courtney was a member of the Royal City council for 17 years and served on almost every committee of the council. At the time of his death, he was chairman of the finance committee.

KHARTOUM, Sudan (Reuters)—The Sudan government today announced a mutiny has broken out among its troops in the south and three officers are missing—one believed killed.

The statement said the mutiny involved two companies of the Equatorial Corps stationed in Torit Town, southern Sudan. The missing officers, from the northern Sudan, serve on the mixed north-south defence force.

Income Tax Cut on Medicine Sought

VANCOUVER (CP)—The federal government will be asked to amend income tax regulations to allow deductions for medicines prescribed by a practicing physician or dentist.

A resolution asking that Canadians be allowed to deduct the cost of medicines for income tax purposes was approved by delegates attending the annual meeting of the Canadian Pharmaceutical Association here. The resolution was submitted by the Ontario Retail Pharmacists Association.

Vancouver Girl Sets New Swim Mark

MONTREAL (CP)—Sixteen-year-old Helen Stewart of Vancouver smashed junior and senior women's records today in the 100-yard freestyle event at the Canadian swimming and diving championships.

The Pan-American gold medalist did the distance in 58.8 seconds, shaving the senior record of 58.9 set only Thursday night, and the old junior record of 100.3.

At Least 7 Dead in U.S. Air Crash

HAWTHORNE, Nev. (AP)—At least seven men perished Friday in the fiery crash of an air force transport plane into a barren mountain 13 miles northeast of here.

Marine Lt.-Col. George Stallings of Hawthorne Naval Ammunition Depot reported seven bodies were found when rescuers were able to enter the charred wreckage five hours after the crash.

Swaps Solid Choice
For $100,000 Derby

CHICAGO (UP)—Swaps will face five challengers Saturday in his first start on a grass course, but the Rex Ellsworth colt was expected to go to the post as the odds-on 3 to 5 choice to win Washington Park's $100,000 added American Derby.

Named to oppose Swaps, unbeaten in seven three year old starts were Clifford Moores' Traffic Judge, W. L. Ranch's Honey-Aibi, Hasty-House Farm's Summer Solstice, Mrs. Harvey Fruehauf's Parador, and Mrs. Harry L. Nathenson's Ambiguous.

Should all six start the race would gross $146,425 and pay the winner $89,600.

There seemed little doubt that Swaps would add the top prize to his 1955 earnings which a ready total $328,950, highest by far of any in the field.

The Ellsworth entry, by the imported Khaled out of Iron Reward, will carry top weight of 126 pounds under jockey Willie Shoemaker, battling for the year. Swaps drew post position five.

100,000
Cheer
Marilyn

TORONTO (CP)—Swimmer Marilyn Bell's hometown today gave her one of the biggest tickertape welcomes the city has ever seen.

As she returned from Europe and her conquest of the English channel, thousands of persons jammed hot downtown streets to cheer her and her party.

The 17-year-old swimmer, who landed at suburban Malton airport during the noon hour of the last lap of her journey home, was whisked into the city by a motorcycle escort to a point near the downtown Union Station where a parade formed up for the victory march up Bay Street to the City Hall and a civic reception.

For more than an hour before the parade started, fountains of multi-colored streamers and ticker tapes were hanging from windows in the Bay Street financial district and were carried by the rising hot air into the skies.

DRAPE WITH STREAMERS

Street cars continued to run until the moment of the parade. They were draped with the long tapes thrown from the upper storeys of the big financial houses by excited staff members.

Crowds started gathering outside City Hall more than three hours before Marilyn was due. Families brought their lunches with them and camped on the lawns in front of the building to wait in humid heat for the welcome-home ceremonies.

Deputy clerk Edgar Norris estimated the City Hall crowd at more than 100,000 persons and described it as the "biggest since the 1951 royal tour." Riding behind three bands in (Continued on Page 8)

Patrick to Retire;
Sons Retain Cougars

Lester Patrick, hockey's famed "Silver Fox," will sever active connection in the near future with the sport he has fostered and grown with for over half a century.

This was intimated today by Fred Hutchinson, general manager of the Victoria Cougars of the Western Hockey League, of which Patrick is major stockholder.

Hutchinson today confirmed rumors to the effect that Patrick, Canada's "Mr. Hockey" for 35 years, is consummating a deal whereby sons Lynn and Murray, and Hutchinson take over control of the Cougars.

It is believed that Patrick will turn over his interest in the club to his two sons, both of whom have followed their father's footsteps in the game, to keep the Patrick name alive in hockey in Victoria while Lester himself slips quietly into retirement.

Hutchinson told the Times today that while any announcement now is premature, a deal is under way between the parties involved. Hutchinson revealed that the "parties" were Patrick, his two sons and himself.

The Cougar general manager declined to name the exact date of Patrick's retirement, or the actual terms by which 72-year-old Patrick will dispose of his interest in the club.

"There is a remote possibility that the sale will fall through," said Hutchinson, "but a definite announcement will be made in the near future."

Palmer Hot
In 3rd Round
Of Open Golf

WESTON, Ont. (CP)—Arnold Palmer of Latrobe, Pa., set a blistering pace along the first nine of the Canadian open golf championship third round today and was threatening to pull further away from the field.

Starting today as halfway leader with 131, Palmer shot a five-under-par 31 on the out nine, compared with 34 for Jack Burke, Jr. of Klamath Lake, N.Y., who started with 133.

Leadership for the full three rounds at that point rested with Bill Mahoney of Vancouver and Ed (Porky) Oliver of Leamington, Ill., each with 210, but that mark was ready to be wiped out at any moment by those behind them.

Girl Nears Swim Goal
After Four Drop Out

WINNIPEG (BUP)—Kathie McIntosh, 20, was all alone in her attempt to become the first person to swim the 18 miles across Lake Winnipeg today after four others gave up.

Kathie was within three miles of the west shore of the lake after nine hours. She was swimming with her left arm almost useless because of bursitis.

The disastrous downpour was attributed by the weather bureau to a dying spurt from one-time-hurricane Diane.

Almost all methods of travel to Scranton, Pa., were cut off by the rampaging Lackawanna River—which went nine feet above flood stage—or other streams that became swirling carriers of desolation.

'Sonic Barrier' Waves
Thought Responsible

An unidentified jet aircraft bursting the sound barrier seems the most likely culprit in regard to four mysterious explosions heard in Oak Bay between 3 and 3.10 p.m. Thursday.

Dozens of residents reported seeing a vapor trail in the sky at the time, and one, Mrs. D. I. Douglas, 1584 Clive Drive, told Oak Bay police she saw an aircraft.

She told police further that her daughter, who has heard the explosion an aircraft makes as it reaches the speed of sound, said Thursday's mystery blasts were closely akin to the aircraft phenomenon.

The explosions were heard over a restricted area, but appeared to have come from the southeast, over water. They were heard between the Up-lands and Shoal Bay, and westward into Fairfield, but elsewhere in Victoria they went unheard.

Mrs. J. T. Lee, 2550 Maynard, in the Ten Mile Point area, said the sound was that of a ladder being placed against the house, and flakes of plaster fell from the ceiling.

A window was blown out of a basement door at the home of W. J. Roper, 161 Beach Drive, and Oak Bay police were quite convinced that a truck had hit Oak Bay municipal hall.

About half the employees in the building felt the tremor, police said.

Frank Partridge, 151 Beach Drive, said each of the four blasts "really shook" his house. There are many things the occasionally.

Antidisestablishmentarianism Wins Delay in Argentina Vote

Peron signs it, election of a constitutional assembly to sever the church's official ties with the state could be held off until next May. The original law called for an election before Nov. 23.

Under the present constitution, Roman Catholicism is Argentina's official religion and the president must be of that faith. But the Vatican excommunicated Peron last June during his bitter feud with church leaders whom he accused of starting an insurgent political movement.

The senate acted less than 24 hours after Justice Minister Oscar Alburio accused seven priests in Buenos Aires of using the pulpit to incite "a campaign of disobedience" against Peron.
